Asia Transforming: Old Values and New Presences

Thursday, Friday, Saturday
September 18, 19, 20, 2014

The Hofstra Cultural Center, the New York Conference on Asian Studies (NYCAS) and the Mid-Atlantic Region Association for Asian Studies (MAR/AAS) are proud to present an international conference that contemplates how ongoing economic, social and political transformations have challenged present-day perceptions of Asian cultural identities.

The program committee invites proposals for panels, round-tables, and individual papers on all aspects of Asian and Asian-American history, culture, and contemporary life, representing disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, and professional schools. Interdisciplinary proposals are also welcome. In addition, the conference will feature a Teaching Asia Workshop, concerts, art exhibitions and cultural events.

Presentation topics may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Notions of hybridity
- Diaspora and migration
- Global Asian cosmopolitanisms/transnational cultures
- Impact of globalization

The deadline for submission of proposals for individual papers, panels, and round-tables is April 7, 2014. For proposal submission, please visit tinyurl.com/NYCASMAR14 or email the conference co-directors.
