Hofstra University Offers Stimulating Program for Retirees

Open House on September 16

Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY - Hofstra University Continuing Education welcomes retirees into its PEIR (Personal Enrichment in Retirement) program. If you enjoy intellectual stimulation, personal growth, and socializing with like-minded individuals, we invite you to make the most of your active retirement by joining Hofstra's PEIR program.

To learn more, please join us at a free PEIR Open House on Wednesday, September 16 from 10 a.m. to noon at Hofstra USA on North Campus.

PEIR members plan, facilitate, and participate in classes, discussions, presentations, and social events, are exposed to topics such as literature, history, religion, philosophy, natural sciences, political science, the arts, economics, and technology.

PEIR takes place each week on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the Hofstra campus, with occasional field trips on Wednesdays. Informal lunches in Hofstra's Mack Student Center offer a friendly setting for lively discussion and social interaction.

PEIR Members become part of the Hofstra University academic and social community, and may attend Hofstra University concerts, exhibits and lectures at a reduced fee, utilize recreational facilities, and enjoy library privileges.

To R.S.V.P. to the Open House, call Bradley Kaye at (516) 463-7200. For more information about PEIR, visit ce.hofstra.edu.
