HOFSTRA FACTS, FIGURES, STREAKS AND TRENDS:

- Hofstra enters the 2004 season on a two-game losing skid. The Pride were blanked at Rhode Island 24-0, and dropped a 49-42 overtime decision at Liberty to close out the 2003 season.

- Hofstra's sub-.500 record last year was just the third time in Coach Joe Gardi's 14 seasons at Hofstra that the Pride finished below .500, following a 5-6 season in 1996 and a 4-6 season in 1992.

- The Pride has won 29 of its last 50 regular season games and 38 of its last 60 in-season contests. The Pride is 52-27 in regular season play since the start of the 1997 season. The Pride has posted a 68-34-1 record over the last 103 regular season games. They are 80-35-2 over the last 117 regular season games dating back to the middle of the 1993 season. Hofstra has won 37 of 62 contests, including playoff games, since the start of the 1999 season.

- Hofstra has won 23 of its last 34 regular season games at Shuart Stadium. Hofstra is 57-20 at Shuart Stadium since Joe Gardi arrived in Hempstead in 1990.

- Hofstra has won 18 of its last 32 road games and 20 of its last 36 contests away from Shuart Stadium. The Pride is 25-17 on the road since the start of the 1997 season.

HOFSTRA HEAD COACH: Joe Gardi is in his 15th season as Head Football Coach at Hofstra University. He has posted a 107-52-2 record during that time. His .671 winning percentage ranks second, behind Mickey Kwiatkowski (.716), in school history. Gardi's 107 victories are the second most all-time at Hofstra behind the legendary Howard "Howdy" Myers (141 wins from 1950-1974).

HOFSTRA COACHING STAFF: The Pride lost five assistant coaches from last year's staff. But Hofstra Head Football Coach Joe Gardi says this year's staff may be the best staff that he has had during his tenure at Hofstra. The 2004 Pride football coaching staff is as follows:

Coach	Pos.	HU Yr.	Overall Yr.
Greg Gigantino	Def. Coord.	12 th yr.	27 th yr.
Warren Ruggiero	Off. Coord.	5 th yr.	17 th yr.
Bob McIntyre	Linebackers	16 th yr.	16 th yr.
Adam Brown	DL & ST	4 th yr.	4 th yr.
Carlton Goff	RB	2 nd yr.	10 th yr.
Damian Wroblewski	Off. Line	1 st yr.	6 th yr.
Jaime Elizondo	Receivers	1 st yr.	5 th yr.
Chip Garber	Def. Backs	1 st yr.	24 th yr.
Dennis Mikula	Off. & ST Asst.	1 st yr.	1 st yr.
Alberto Van der Mije	ST Asst.	2 nd yr.	2 nd yr.

64th SEASON: 2004 marks the 64th season of Hofstra Football. The Pride has posted a .500 or better record in 43 of those seasons. Hofstra has recorded a 373-231-11 record in its 615 games.

SEASON OPENERS: The Pride has won 19 of its last 21 season openers. In 2002, the University of Montana ended Hofstra's winning streak of 19 consecutive season openers, as well as the Pride's 255 game non-shutout streak with a 21-0 victory. Last year, the Pride dropped its season opener at Marshall 45-21. Hofstra has posted a 38-23-2 all-time record in season openers.

HOME OPENERS UNDER GARDI: Hofstra has posted an 11-3 record in home openers under head football coach Joe Gardi. The Hofstra home opening losses came in 2003 to Maine (44-21), 2002 to Montana (21-0), and in 2000 to Delaware (44-14).

SHUART STADIUM - HOME, SWEET HOME: Since 1980, Hofstra is 103-24-0 in regular season play at Shuart Stadium, formerly Hofstra Stadium. Hofstra was 6-0 in 1986 and 1980; 6-1 in 1998; 5-0 in 1995, 1990, 1989, 1988 and 1983, 4-0 in 1991; 5-1 in 2001, 1999, 1984 and 1982; 4-1 in 2000, 1997, 1994, 1993, 1987, 1985 and 1981; 3-1 in 1992; 2-4 in 1996 and 3-3 in 2002. The Pride was 2-4 at home in 2003.

INJURY REPORT: Here is the Pride injury report entering the Albany game:

Player	Pos.	Injury	Status
Marques Colston	WR	Shoulder	Out
DeWayne Whitaker	CB	Knee	Out
Josh Cascio	LB	Shoulder	Out
Pat O'Brien	C	Leg	Questionable
Thomas Green	SS	Leg	Questionable
Chris Durkin	OG	Head	Questionable

HOFSTRA-ALBANY SERIES: Thursday's game is the 11th meeting between Hofstra and Albany in a series that started in 1974. The Pride leads the series 8-2. The two teams last met on November 18, 2000 in Hempstead with the Pride posting a 55-28 victory over the Great Danes. The series history is as follows:

Year	Winner (Loc.)	Score
1974	Albany (H)	7-33
1983	Hofstra (H)	20-3
1984	Hofstra (H)	35-32
1985	Albany (A)	27-35
1986	Hofstra (H)	30-14
1987	Hofstra (A)	24-13
1988	Hofstra (H)	31-22
1989	Hofstra (A)	25-21
1990	Hofstra (H)	65-7
2000	Hofstra (H)	55-28

THE LAST TIME – HOFSTRA AND ALBANY: Hofstra and Albany last met on November 18, 2000 at James M. Shuart Stadium with the Pride posting a 55-28 victory. The Great Danes jumped out to a 14-0 lead after 2:15 of the contest but the Pride responded with 35 unanswered points to take a 35-14 lead by halftime. Hofstra quarterback Rocky Butler, now with the Saskatchewan RoughRiders of the Canadian Football League, threw a school-record six touchdowns, including three to receiver Charlie Adams, now with the Denver Broncos, in the victory. Butler was 25 of 36 for 327 yards and six touchdowns. Kahmal Roy had six catches for 132 yards for the Pride. Then-freshman Trevor Dimmie broke the Hofstra single season rushing record in the contest while rushing for 214 yards on 25 carries in the game. Hofstra posted 571 yards on offense while yielding 471.

HOFSTRA'S RETURNING STATISTICAL LEADERS FROM 2003 - 12 GAMES:

James Glee	45-28-73	1.0-8	2-94
Daniel Garay	36-36-72	6.5-26	0

RETURNING STARTERS: The Pride will have 11 players who started the final game of 2003 returning to starting roles in the 2004 season opener against Albany. The 11 players, with six on defense and five on offense, does not include three former defensive starters, linebackers Bill Hambrecht and Gian Villante and cornerback Le'Var Starr, who missed the 2003 season finale because of injury but who will start in 2004. The returning starters from 2003 are:

Offense	Defense
WR Issac Irby	LE Dan Garay
LT Jed Prisby	NT Mickey Keene
RT Willie Colon	RE Stephen Bowen
WR Brian Wolman	LB Cole Haley
QB Bobby Seck	CB Prentice James
	SS Michael Momo

Senior center Patrick O'Brien is another '03 starter who was expected to start again in 2004. But his preseason injury has placed his status for this week as questionable.

RETURNING RECEIVING STATS: The Pride has lost 135 of its 230 receptions from last year to graduation and injury. The biggest losses were Ricky Bryant, who graduated after a 60-reception season, and Marques Colston, who will miss the 2004 season with a shoulder injury after a 51-catch year in 2003. Hofstra returns just 917 of its 3,006 receiving yards.

RETURNING RUSHING STATS: Hofstra returns 616 of its 1,252 rushing yards from 2003. Pride record-holder Trevor Dimmie graduated after rushing for 699 yards last year leaving the job for sophomore Terry Crenshaw, who ran for 499 yards in 2003.

PRESEASON ALL-ATLANTIC 10: Hofstra had two players named to the 2004 All-Atlantic 10 Preseason Football Teams. Junior defensive end Dan Garay and junior linebacker Cole Haley were named to the second team.

THE QUARTERBACKS: All three quarterbacks who started games for the Pride last year return in 2004. But junior Bobby Seck, who started in both of Hofstra's victories last season, gets the starting nod again in 2004. Due to injury, Seck played in just four games last year but completed 60 of 117 passes for 920 yards and six touchdowns. Seck, who got hurt three times last season and missed spring drills with a leg injury, showed what he is capable of with a 496-yard passing performance at Liberty in the 2003 season finale. Sophomore Anton Clarkson, who played in six games and completed 45 of 83 passes for 648 yards, had an outstanding spring season but could not overtake Seck during the preseason camp. Grad student Andrew English saw the most playing time at quarterback last season, appearing in nine games and passing for a team-high 1,438 yards while completing 125 of 227 passes.

IRBY LEADS THE RECEIVING CORPS: Graduate student Isaac Irby, who earned a bachelor's degree this summer, will lead the Pride receiving corps this season. Irby, who had 49 catches for 570 yards last year, is expected to see more reception opportunities with the injury to senior Marques Colston. Juniors Devale Ellis and Brian Wolman, and redshirt freshman Charles Sullivan, who replaces Colston, make up the starting receiver group.

RUNNING BACKS DEEP IN TALENT: Pride Coach Joe Gardi believes what his running backs lack in experience, they will make up for in talent and depth. Sophomore Terry Crenshaw gets the starting job after rushing for 499 yards last year. Crenshaw led the Pride in rushing in three games last year including an 11-carry for 82-yard contest against Maine. He will be pushed by redshirt-freshman Kory Compson-Parrish and freshmen Greg Vineyard and Kareem Huggins.

O-LINE LOOKS TO REBOUND: Despite a starter leaving the team at the start of camp and a second getting hurt in camp, the Pride offensive line will be looking to erase the memory of the 2003 season in which opponents recorded 38 sacks last year. Senior center Pat O'Brien, who may miss the season opener with a leg injury, anchors the offensive line and is the only senior on the two-deep. Juniors Willie Colon and Tom McHugh, and sophomore Jed Prisby give the Pride some more experience on the line.

THE DEFENSIVE LINE: The Pride defense will utilize both the 3-4 and 4-3 formations in 2004. In either set, there will be returning starters at each spot. Senior tackle Mickey Keene (35 tackles) is the only senior on the two-deep. Junior Ed Greene (33 tackles) and freshman Shemiah LeGrande will aid Keene. Juniors Dan Garay, who led the Atlantic 10 linemen in tackles last year with 72, and Stephen Bowen, who posted 49 tackles, return to starting roles on the ends.

LINEBACKERS: Junior linebacker Cole Haley, who led the team in tackles last season, returns to a starting role to lead the Pride defense. Haley, who posted 101 tackles in 2003, has been named to the 2004 All-Atlantic 10 Preseason Team. Last year, he posted 10 tackles at Rhode Island and at William and Mary, nine tackles against the Blue Hens of Delaware, and eight tackles against Northeastern and New Hampshire. Haley also tallied 84 tackles as a freshman in 2002. Gian Villante, who was one of the best surprises of the 2003 season for Hofstra as a freshman, finished fifth on the team in tackles with 77 despite missing two games with a back injury. Villante posted a career-high 11 tackles against James Madison, Northeastern and New Hampshire. Senior Bill Hambrecht returns to a starting role in 2004 after missing last season with a back injury. Hambrecht posted 84 tackles in 2002 for the Pride.

THE SECONDARY: The secondary is the most experienced group with two seniors in cornerback Le'Var Starr and safety Michael Momo-three if you include nickelback James Glee-returning. Starr started eight games and posted 29 tackles before suffering a knee injury. Junior corner Prentice James started 10 games and posted 44 tackles. Glee started eight games at safety and four at corner and posted 73 stops. Momo started the last four games of 2003 and posted 57 tackles on the season. The only first time starter in the secondary is junior safety Sherief Little, who played in all 12 games last year and recorded 14 tackles.

JUST FOR KICKS: The Pride will have two seniors starting at kicker and punter this season. Kicker Chris Onorato returns to his starting role after hitting 15 of 22 field goals last year and 35 of 58 in his career. He booted three field goals in a contest three times last season. After a fierce competition during camp, senior Joe Nolan has won back his starting punting job after losing it due to an injury last season. Nolan averaged 40.6 yards per punt in 2002 but suffered a leg injury before the 2003 season and missed the entire year, Niall Duggan stepped in and averaged 38.9 yards per punt last season while setting the school record for most punts and most punting yards in a season.

The 2004 SPORTS NETWORK/CSTV I-AA PRESEASON POLL: The 2004 Sports Network/CSTV I-AA Preseason Poll is as follows:

ATLANTIC 10 PRESEASON COACHES POLL: With the addition of Towson University in 2004, the 12-team Atlantic 10 Football Conference splits into two divisions this year. Hofstra will play in the North Division along with Maine, Northeastern, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island. Defending I-AA National Champion Delaware is in the South Division with Villanova, William and Mary, James Madison, Richmond and Towson. In a surprising vote by conference coaches and select media, Maine and Villanova have been selected to finish on top of the North and South Divisions, respectively. The Pride has been picked to finish sixth in the Division. The 2004 Atlantic 10 Preseason Predicted Order of Finish, with first-place votes in parentheses, is as follows:

North Division

1. Maine (12)
2. Northeastern (7)
3. Massachusetts (3)
4. New Hampshire (2)
5. Rhode Island
6. Hofstra

South Division

1. Villanova (13)
2. Delaware (11)
3. William & Mary
4. James Madison
5. Richmond
6. Towson

NATIONALLY RANKED OPPONENTS: The Pride will face five teams who are ranked in the Sports Network I-AA Preseason Top 25 Poll. Those five are Delaware (1), Montana (3), Maine (11), Massachusetts (19) and Northeastern (22). Hofstra played five I-AA nationally ranked opponents in 2003, posting a 2-3 record. Since the start of the 2000 season, Hofstra is 5-10 against I-AA Top 25 opponents. In 1999, the Pride was 3-0 against the nationally ranked opponents. Before the Pride's win against #7 Villanova last year, the last time Hofstra defeated a top 10 opponent was on September 2, 2000 when the Pride downed the second-ranked Grizzlies of Montana in Missoula.

TELEVISION: The Hofstra Pride will have three games televised during the 2004 season. The Madison Square Garden Network (MSG) will air the Albany game this week while Fox Sports Net-New York (FSN-NY) will air the game at Massachusetts on November 20th. Carl Reuter and Hofstra's all-time career reception leader Steve Jackson will describe the action on MSG and FSN-NY. Hofstra's game against Richmond on October 30 will also be televised on the Atlantic 10 Television Network.

RADIO AND INTERNET: Every 2004 Hofstra football game can be heard on radio on WRHU-FM (88.7) and on the internet at www.wrhu.org beginning with the pre-game show 30 minutes before every contest. WRHU Sports Director Jared Greenberg and Nick Anastos call the action.

WEEKLY RELEASE FAX AND E-MAIL: The Hofstra University weekly football release will be available on Tuesday evenings on the Hofstra Athletics web site (www.Hofstra.edu/sports). Due to erratic mail delivery, the Hofstra Office of Athletic Communications has ceased mailing weekly press releases. However, we will e-mail the release, in PDF format, " to those media members who wish to get every football release during the season. Please contact Jim Sheehan if you wish to be put on one of these lists.

TEAMLINE: If you can't catch the Pride on Fox Sports Net New York or on radio, you can still hear the Hofstra football play-by-play, via telephone, on TEAMLINE. Just dial 1-800-846-4700 ext. 2043 and you can listen to any Hofstra game for as low as 25 cents per minute by charging it to your VISA card.

THE HOFSTRA FOOTBALL SHOW: Fans, friends and the media are invited to be part of the live audience and join Hofstra Head Football Coach Joe Gardi every Wednesday night at Champions Restaurant at the Long Island Marriott as WRHU-FM (88.7) presents the Hofstra Football Show. The two-hour (7-9 p.m.) show, which will air locally on WRHU-FM and worldwide on the internet at www.wrhu.org will review and preview Hofstra football during the 2004 season. In addition Hofstra's opposing coach that week, as well as players and media members will make guest appearances on the show.
