

Commencement Exercises

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21, 2003

This is the unofficial program of the December 21, 2003, Commencement. The official program for records and archives will be published by the Office of Campus Life of Hofstra University on March 10, 2004.

Commencement Notes

THE FLAG

The Hofstra flag, bearing the seal of the University, was presented to Hofstra on April 19, 1940, by Dr. Alexander Loudon, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, in the name of Her Majesty, Wilhelmina, Queen of the Netherlands. The seal is derived from the coat of arms of the House of Orange-Nassau. The motto, "Je maintiendray," means "I stand steadfast."

THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The ceremonial mace, carried by the Grand Marshal in the academic procession, was given to Hofstra by Halsted Billings Vander Poel, son of former Trustee W. Halsted Vander Poel.

The mace is made of silver with a shaft of ebony. Its design is based upon one of the oldest maces of Yale University, dating from the time of Queen Anne. Engraved upon the head is the Hofstra seal. Around the upper portion of the haft appears the quotation from the Book of Proverbs: "The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the Lord hath made even both of them."

The history of the mace in ceremonies begins in the 13th century when ceremonial maces were borne by the sergeant at arms, a royal bodyguard established in France by Phillip II and in England by Richard I. When used in our Commencement Exercises, its presence symbolizes the authority by which Commencement is held and under which degrees are granted.

THE GONFALONS

Of the 10 gonfalons, five of the pennantlike ensigns plus the Hofstra seal were first presented in University ceremonies during the dedication of the Hofstra Library in 1967. The gonfalon for the School of Law was added in 1970, followed by the University Libraries' gonfalon in 1993, the School of Communication gonfalon in 1996, the School for University Studies' gonfalon in 1997, and the Honors College gonfalon in 2001. The history of the ceremonial use of gonfalons seems lost in antiquity. Probably best remembered is their appearance at the head of the parades of the Crusades where they presented the coats of arms of legion commanders. The gonfalons of Hofstra carry the seals of the Colleges and Schools of the University.

The seal of Hofstra is worked in threads of gold, silver, red, blue and green against a background of white silk, derived from the great seal of the House of Orange-Nassau, and is at the center of the stage. (See note under "The Flag.")

The gonfalon of Hofstra College of Liberal Arts and Sciences carries the seal of the province of Friesland, the original home of the Hofstra family. The pennant below the seal has the colors of Hofstra, blue and gold, at the left and right, and the colors of the College, white for arts and gold for sciences, through the center.

The School of Education and Allied Human Services' gonfalon carries the seal of the province of Groningen. The colors of Hofstra trim the pennant, while the light blue of education is the center color.

The gonfalon of New College carries the seal of the province of Zeeland. The University blue and gold trim the sides of the pennant, with the white center band proclaiming the liberal arts philosophy of New College.

The gonfalon of the Frank G. Zarb School of Business carries the seal of the province of Gelderland. The University blue and gold trim the pennant, with the traditional “drab” filling the center stripe of the gonfalon.

The gonfalon of the School of Law carries the seal of Noord Brabant province, is trimmed in the University colors, and carries a band of purple through the center to indicate law.

The gonfalon of the School of Communication carries the seal of the province of Arnhem. The University blue and gold trim the panel of lavender and deep purple with a center panel of white representing the arts.

The gonfalon of Honors College adapts the seal of the Frisian town of Tytsjerksteradiel. The pennant design uses the University colors in a traditional woven heraldic pattern representing the interrelationship of disciplines in Honors College.

The Hofstra University Libraries’ gonfalon carries the seal of the province of Rotterdam. University colors trim the pennant. The center area carries the colors of all the Colleges and Schools and is overlaid with a band of lemon yellow, representing the discipline of library science.

The gonfalon of University College for Continuing Education carries the seal of Limburg province. University colors trim the pennant, and the center area carries the colors of all the Colleges and Schools.

The seal on the gonfalon for the School for University Studies comes from the Dutch municipality of Apeldoorn in the province of Gelderland. The white center symbolizes the arts and letters. The adjacent strips of gold and blue represent the colors of Hofstra University, and the border of red and blue is reminiscent of the colors of the flag of the modern state of the Netherlands.

THE MARSHALS’ SCAPULARS

The Marshals in today’s academic procession are wearing specially designed scapulars of their offices. The scapulars draw their basic characteristics from the official seal of the University. Each is designed against a background of silver thread, laid with gold lace and embroidered threads of red, blue and green, the colors of the Hofstra seal.

The scapular of the Grand Marshal carries the University seal in full color as the breastplate. The breastplates of the other Marshals are linked with other significant sections of the seal. The badges of the Trustee and Guest Marshal, Faculty Marshal, and Graduate Marshal carry four, three, or two tassels of gold, in order of rank, while the scapulars of the highest rank, Grand Marshal, and the Baccalaureate Marshal are without tassels. Assistant Marshals carry batons.

These badges of office and the gonfalons were designed and executed by Gabriel Jooris and family, working in cooperation with Robert D. Noble, former Secretary of the University, 1954-1984. The Libraries’ gonfalon was designed by a committee of the Library staff under the direction of Dr. Charles R. Andrews, former Dean of the Joan and Donald E. Axinn Library. It was hand sewn by Louise McCourt and dedicated in November 1993. The School of Communication gonfalon was also sewn by Louise McCourt and dedicated during the 1996 Commencement Exercises. The gonfalon for the School for University Studies was designed by David C. Christman, Dean of the School for University Studies, sewn by Louise McCourt, and dedicated in 1997. The gonfalon for Honors College was designed by Dr. J. Stephen Russell, Dean of Honors College, and sewn by Louise McCourt.

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The wearing of caps, gowns, and hoods at college and university functions dates to the Middle Ages, when they were first worn by monks and students for warmth in the damp and drafty 12th-century castles and halls of learning. Through the years their styles and colors have come to represent certain specific meanings.

Gowns for the bachelor's degree have a semistiff yoke, long pleated front, and intricate shirring across the shoulders and back. The bachelor's gown is worn closed and is distinguished primarily by its long pointed sleeves.

The gown for the master's degree has the same yoke effect as that of the bachelor's but is designed so that it may be worn open or closed. The back of the sleeve is oblong and cut square, with the front part carrying a cutaway arc.

Gowns for the doctoral degree may also be worn open or closed. They have long velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the bell-shaped sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

Members of the Hofstra University Board of Trustees wear academic robes and caps in the distinctive colors of the University. A small, embroidered replica of the seal of the University is worn on each lapel.

It is the hood that gives color and definitive meaning to the academic costume. The hood is of varying sizes for master's and doctoral degrees and of material to match the gown. It is lined with the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is bordered with velvet of the proper width and color to indicate the field of learning.

Academic Honors

Some undergraduate students in today's ceremony are wearing special scapulars, which identify them as honors graduates. They have earned this distinction either by maintaining a high grade point average or by completing the requirements for University or Departmental honors.

Dean's List honors are awarded each semester to freshmen who earn a 3.3 or higher grade point average, and to sophomores, juniors and seniors who earn a grade point average of 3.4 or higher.

Full-time students who achieve a 4.0 grade point average in a given semester are designated Provost's Scholars.

Departmental honors are bestowed upon graduates who have successfully completed special requirements in their majors. There are two degrees of honors: high honors and honors. The degree of honors is based on achievement in honors essays or seminars and grades in department courses.

University honors are awarded upon completion of a series of seminars in the Honors Program or Honors College with a 3.6 or higher grade point average.

Baccalaureate degrees with distinction are conferred upon students who have achieved the following grade point averages:

summa cum laude	3.9
magna cum laude	3.8
cum laude	3.6

Master's degrees with distinction are conferred upon students who have attained a minimum grade point average of 3.75.

BRIAN DENNEHY

Award-winning actor Brian Dennehy attended Columbia University on a football scholarship, earning a bachelor of arts in history while also appearing in some college productions. Upon completion of his service in the U.S. Marine Corps, he began acting in off-off-Broadway productions, making his professional debut in Anton Chekhov's Ivanov. He soon moved to California, and made his feature film debut playing a football player in Semi-Tough (1977).

Widely known for his feature film work, Brian Dennehy has appeared in dozens of movies, including: 10 (1979), First Blood (1982), Gorky Park (1983), Never Cry Wolf (1983), Cocoon (1985), Silverado (1985), F/X (1986), Legal Eagles (1986), Best Seller (1987), The Last of the Finest (1989), Twice in a Lifetime (1989), Presumed Innocent (1990), Gladiator (1992), Tommy Boy (1995) and Baz Luhrmann's Romeo + Juliet (1996). Mr. Dennehy was named best actor at the Chicago Film Festival for his portrayal of a middle-aged architect undergoing a midlife crisis in Peter Greenaway's The Belly of an Architect (1987).

Brian Dennehy has also starred in numerous television movies, most recently The Crooked E (for CBS about the Enron debacle), and he portrayed Fred Silverman in the NBC movie Behind the Scenes. Other performances include controversial college basketball coach Bobby Knight in the ESPN original movie A Season on the Brink, and the Showtime film Warden of Red Rock, which he rewrote, executive produced and co-starred opposite James Caan. Mr. Dennehy appeared in the John Sacret Young film Sirens; Shadow of a Doubt for NBC (which he also wrote and directed); the CBS miniseries Fail Safe; and the Emmy-winning miniseries Day One. He also starred in four Jack Reed NBC television films, for which he served as director, co-writer and executive producer as well.

Brian Dennehy was nominated for an Emmy on four separate occasions for his work in the miniseries The Burden of Proof, To Catch a Killer, Murder in the Heartland and A Killing in a Small Town. He was nominated for a Cable Ace Award for his work in HBO's Perfect Witness, but instead won the award for his performance in the TNT movie Foreign Affairs.

His portrayal of traveling salesman Willy Loman in the Showtime production of Arthur Miller's Death of a Salesman (2000) earned him a Golden Globe for Best Actor, the Screen Actors Guild Award for Outstanding Performance by a Male Actor, as well as an Emmy nomination (his fifth to date) for Outstanding Lead Actor in a Miniseries or a Movie.

Mr. Dennehy is also a powerful stage actor. He received two Tony Awards for Best Actor in a Play, for Eugene O'Neill's Long Day's Journey Into Night (2003) and for the 50th anniversary production of Arthur Miller's Death of a Salesman (1999). Other theater credits include several plays at the Goodman Theatre in Chicago: leading roles in the 1998 production of Death of a Salesman, and Robert Falls' productions of Long Days Journey Into Night (2002), A Touch of the Poet (1996), The Iceman Cometh (1990) and Galileo (1986). He and Falls collaborated in 1992 for a remounting of The Iceman Cometh at the Abbey Theatre in Dublin, Ireland. He also performed in Peter Brook's 1998 production of The Cherry Orchard at the Brooklyn Academy of Music's Majestic Theatre, the Wisdom Bridge Theatre production of Rat in the Skull, and Says I, Says He at the Mark Taper Forum and the Phoenix Theatre in New York.

Recently, Brian Dennehy performed alongside Julia Roberts, Meryl Streep and Tom Hanks in Paul Newman's The World of Nick Adams at the Kodak Theatre in Los Angeles. He will next be seen on stage in Eugene O'Neill's two-character play Hughie at Trinity Repertory Company in Providence, Rhode Island.

DR. HENRY WENDELL FOSTER JR.

Dr. Henry Wendell Foster Jr. is professor emeritus and a former dean of Meharry Medical College, and clinical professor of obstetrics and gynecology at Vanderbilt University Medical Center, both in Nashville, Tennessee. In 1995 he was nominated by President William J. Clinton to the post of U.S. Surgeon General. Although the Senate Labor and Human Relations Committee sent forward a favorable recommendation for his confirmation, his opponents denied him an up-or-down Senate floor vote, where his confirmation would have been assured. Thereafter, from 1996 to 2001 Dr. Foster served as President Clinton's Senior Advisor on Teen Pregnancy Reduction and Youth Issues.

Dr. Foster earned a bachelor of science at Morehouse College in 1954 and a doctor of medicine in 1958 from the University of Arkansas, where he was inducted into the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society. He was the only black student in a class of 90. He conducted an internship at Detroit Receiving Hospital from 1958 to 1959 and spent two years as a medical officer in the U.S. Air Force (1959-1961). Upon his discharge, he was a resident physician in general surgery at the former Malden Hospital in Malden, Massachusetts, from 1961 to 1962, and completed a residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Meharry Medical College from 1962 to 1965.

Upon completing his postgraduate training, Dr. Foster assumed the position of chief of obstetrics and gynecology at the John A. Andrew Memorial Hospital of Tuskegee University (formerly Tuskegee Institute). There he helped pioneer what has become a national model for regionalized perinatal health care systems. It was primarily this activity that led to his induction into the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences in 1972 as one of its youngest inductees. While serving as professor and chairman of Meharry's Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Dr. Foster spent five years as senior program consultant for the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and, from 1981 to 1986, directed its Program to Consolidate Health Services for High-Risk Young People. From this program he conceptualized and developed the "I Have a Future Program" to reduce teen pregnancy, which was recognized by President George H. Bush in 1991 as one of the nation's "Thousand Points of Light."

During his career, Dr. Foster has written more than 200 publications and abstracts. He has contributed chapters to textbooks, is the author of Make a Difference, and has developed audiovisual educational materials. He has conducted 74 formal university lectures, and his professional expertise has been sought across the globe. In addition, he has participated in conferences, seminars and hearings in Spain, Mexico, Peru, Kenya, South Africa, Egypt, Malawi, Mainland China, Canada, Singapore, Vietnam, the United Kingdom, Australia and Russia.

Dr. Foster has served on numerous boards, committees and councils, all of which work to improve reproductive health and medical scholarship. They include The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists; examiner for the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology; and editorial board member of Academic Medicine (formerly The Journal of Medical Education), the monthly scholarly journal of the Association of American Medical Colleges. He serves on the trustee boards for Drew University of Medicine & Science and the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine. Dr. Foster is a past president of the Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics, which addresses undergraduate educational issues in obstetrics and gynecology in all 126 accredited American and 16 accredited Canadian medical schools. He is the immediate past chairman of the board of the U.S. Committee for the United Nations Population Fund, president-elect of the board of Pathfinder International and a past chairman of the Board of Regents of the National Library of Medicine. In May 1993 the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences conferred upon him the first of his five honorary degrees, to date.

“The Netherlands”

*O Hofstra, to honor thy name we foregather,
Rejoicing in voicing thy praises anew;
By thee we are guided, with counsel provided;
Sustain us with thy strength in the paths we pursue.*

You settlers of Nassau who cleared its broad acres,
You sailors and whalers, adventurers bold,
Your precepts uphold us, your visions enfold us,
Your spirit be emblazoned in blue and in gold!

As sons and as daughters to Hofstra united,
We never will sever the ties that us bind;
The years that pass by us shall never deny us
The memories we cherish in heart and in mind.
