

Join Us for Two Exciting Events on One Day

May 5th, 2013 ~ Hofstra University, Hagedorn Hall ~ 1:00pm – 4:00pm

Gallery Opening and Celebration:

Creative Arts Therapy Program Event

1:00pm-2:30 pm

Join together for the official opening of dedicated gallery space in Hagedorn Hall, second floor! We are proud to use a generous grant by a CAT alum to create a dedicated gallery space for our permanent collection and featured shows.

Bring your family and friends to help us celebrate this exciting addition to our program!

Telling Our Stories

Our first exhibit features current students' work and imagery created by Pat Workman, a long time supporter of the Hofstra Creative Arts Therapy Program.

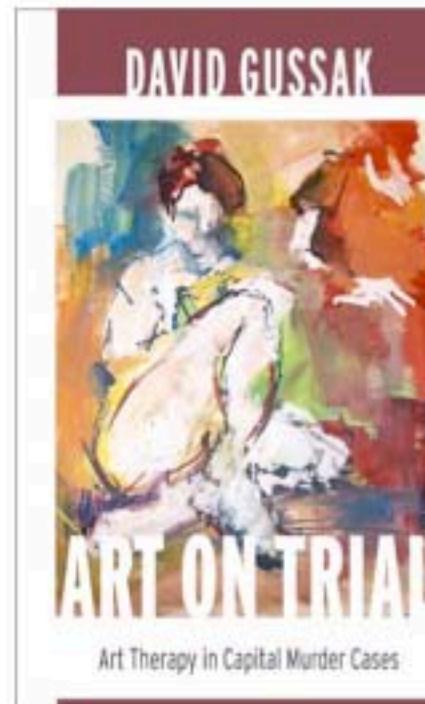

Artwork by Lauren Clark, Student

DAVID GUSSAK, Ph.D., ATR-BC. ~ GUEST SPEAKER & BOOK SIGNING

Sponsored by the Creative Arts Therapy Club at Hofstra (CATCH)

2:30pm – 4:00pm

Will be presenting his new book:
Art on Trial: Art Therapy in Capital Murder Cases

Dr. Gussak will bring his own experience as an art therapist who served as an expert witness for a capital murder case. This presentation will touch on:

1. Artwork as evidence for a death row case
2. Assessment of 60 pieces of artwork
3. Account of court proceedings
4. Ethical, moral and legal ramifications

Dr. Gussak is an associate professor and the chairperson for The Florida State University Department of Art Education and is the Clinical Coordinator for its Graduate Art Therapy Program.
