Are we crazy or is someone or something disturbing the works of art and objects in the gallery? Every morning since our exhibit opened, the Museum's staff has been noticing subtle changes in the gallery...paintings askew, object shifted and an eerie feeling of a supernatural presence.

One work in the exhibit has consistently been present in all the previous exhibitions where this paranormal activity has occurred.

Your job (if you choose to accept it) is to discover which one of these works in our current exhibit is haunted and what the story behind it is. If you solve the mystery correctly, your name will be included in the final drawing for an iPod.

Have fun and be careful!

Ghost busting begins on Tuesday, February 23, 2010 at the Museum's Emily Lowe Gallery and must be solved by Saturday, March 13 at 5:00 p.m.

Emily Lowe Gallery hours are:

Tues-Fri - 10 am - 5 pm & Sat-Sun - 1-5pm

The winner will be announced on the Museum's Facebook page.
