Electronic Books

Dear Subscriber,

The Library's redesigned web page now includes a link to a wide variety of electronic book web sites. The page still includes a link to ebrary, a collection of current titles licensed by the Library for faculty and students. In addition, there are links to free sites of public domain sources. There are sites specializing in poetry, fiction, foreign language, ancient classics, philosophy, and religion. There are some surprises too. Did you know there is an International Children's Digital Library? Have you looked at the Library of Congress' American Memory Project recently? These links and many more are brought together in the Library's Electronic Books page.

These resources can be accessed via the "Electronic Books" link on the Library homepage at <http://www.hofstra.edu/library> or directly at http://www.hofstra.edu/library/library_electbooks.html.

Sincerely,

Howard E. Graves, Senior Assistant Dean
