

"The Carrollton,"

BALTIMORE, LIGHT AND GERMAN STS.

BALTIMORE, MD.

F. W. COLEMAN, Manager.

11. P. M. October 24. 1884.

Dear A. D. A.:

We arrived here about an hour ago. after a long ride by rail from Philadelphia. and I thought that the distance was interminable, it really being the first unpleasant part of our trip thus far, the reason of which was owing entirely to extreme fatigue and sleepiness we were had our supper and visited three beautiful parlors, furnished with exquisite carpets, and plush furnishings in several different and gorgeous shades, there are also smaller sitting-rooms, and writing-rooms one of which we are occupying now writing by a bright gas-light with plenty of materials. If I thought the Colonnade was grand, it will be impossible to describe this massive structure justly and when I arrive at the White House it will be time there surely to stop and get back to some sensible living. C...

Take in every thing and is constantly reminding me that he is a bird from today we have visited the "Zoological Gardens," Girard College, both of which will take some time to describe. Permitted to see this afternoon C... took me down Christ Church St. to the famous Day grade establishment of John Warranaker, of which I have heard Percy speak so much about. It exceeded any I saw in New York that ever I was in, and C... says that is nothing like it. It would take time to write all that I have seen, for I could say a great deal. We will leave here for W. town at three. I am very sleepy. Last night I was awakened from my usual sound repose by a political demonstration from en la Hatti