Queens, N.Y. School Photographs, 1924-1936
160 photographs, 0.45 cubic ft.

The collection includes 160 black and white panoramic photographs, all of which were taken in schools (mainly public) in Queens, N.Y., from 1924-1936. The majority of the photographs are class graduation pictures. All of the photographs were taken by professional photographer Frederick J. Weber (1881-1967), who is well-known for having documented various subjects in Queens County for over 50 years. Weber owned a studio in Jamaica, N.Y., and many of the schools represented in the collection are in Jamaica or its surrounding communities. Though he used photographic paper of varying sizes, the majority of the prints measure approximately 8 inches by 19 inches. A number of photographs in the collection are either duplicate or alternate shots.
