Jung, William. Military Clippings Scrapbooks, 1928-1945
2.5 cubic ft.

The collection, which spans the years 1928-1945, is comprised of nine scrapbooks of newspaper and magazine clippings concerned mainly with military aircraft and warships from a number of different countries, including the United States, Great Britain and Germany. (Note: The majority of the material dates from post-World War I peacetime up until around the time that the United States entered World War II.) Also included in the collection are clippings about the advancements and accomplishments made in commercial shipbuilding and airplane manufacturing, as well as about famous pilots from aviation history. The scrapbooks also include some loose items, among which are the publications Pacific Fleet...At Play (magazine) and The "Queen Mary": A Book of Comparisons (booklet).

Particularly noteworthy among the clippings in the collection are the cartoons of famous pilots (see "Pilots" scrapbook) that ran in the strip, "Hall of Fame of the Air." These cartoons, published in a number of newspapers, ran from 1935 to at least 1940. They were illustrated by well-known American aviation artist Clayton Knight (1891-1969), father of Hilary Knight, author of "Heloise." The cartoons also featured the byline of Eddie Rickenbacker, famed World War I flying ace and Medal of Honor recipient. Among the pilots featured were Trehawke Davies, Charles H. Day, Luis de Florez and Alexander de Seversky.
