CARECEN Collection, c.1980s -
0.70 cubic ft.

According to their website, the Central American Refugee Center (CARECEN-NY) “works to protect the civil rights of immigrants, increase understanding between the native born and newcomer communities, and raise awareness of the interaction of human rights disasters and immigration.” Among other things, this organization, which is located in Hempstead, NY, provides free legal services to Latinos (many of whom live on Long Island) who are involved in immigration battles.

The collection includes newsletters, flyers/brochures (some in Spanish), periodicals, and fact sheets produced by CARECEN-NY. The newsletters make up the bulk of the collection and include the following: CARECEN Update (formerly AL DIA! and CARECEN); Refugee Advocate, which is published by Central American Legal Defense Program (CALDEP); The Journal (of the Human Rights Office of CARECEN-NY); and El Norte (in Spanish).
