Post Family Collection, 1796-1935 (bulk dates: 1833-1888)
3.6 c.f.

Joseph Post, son of Edmund and Catherine (Willits), was born in Westbury, Long Island, New York, in 1803. In 1828, he married Mary W. Robbins, daughter of Willet and Esther (Seaman). Joseph and Mary were members of the Westbury Monthly Meeting (Society of Friends/Quakers), and were both well-known abolitionists who numbered among their friends some of the most progressive thinkers of their day.

The bulk of this collection is comprised of letters written to Joseph and Mary Post from 1838-1888. Notable correspondents include Cyrus Peirce, Rev. George Truman, and Lucretia Mott, abolitionist and women's rights leader. Topics discussed are slavery, the Civil War, Christianity, Friends' Meetings, theological matters, and general everyday life. Also included in the collection are artifacts, engravings, genealogy documents, general print materials, indentures, Monthly Meeting testimonies, pamphlets, photographic prints, poems, receipts, silhouette prints, sketches, song lyrics, survey diagrams, and a family photo album.

Particularly noteworthy items include the following: a photographic print of abolitionist Mary H. (Post) Hallowell (daughter of Isaac Post), whose home in Rochester, NY, was a stop on the Underground Railroad; a framed silhouette print of the famous Quaker preacher, Elias Hicks; a framed engraving of Lucretia Mott; and indentures related to the sale of land in Merrick as well as other locations. Also notable are photographic prints of Joseph Post, Mary Post, Esther Robbins, Willet S. Robbins, Mary Willis, Henry Willis, and Isaac Post.
