Welcome to Hofstra University

Get connected to your home away from home, to more than 200 student clubs and organizations here at Hofstra University, to nearby New York City, and to thousands of other students who call Hofstra their home.

We have planned an exciting week full of programming and activities that will help you get better acquainted to life on Hofstra's campus. Please look through this program and plan your Welcome Week by selecting events that interest you. Be sure to not miss the "Required" and "Pride" events.

Make sure you have your HofstraCard with you throughout this week. Your HofstraCard is used for identification, entry into your residence hall, meal/snack purchases, and point accumulation to be entered to win an Apple iPad2!

This week, sophomores, juniors, and seniors will serve as your Welcome Week leaders. They will help guide you through Welcome Week and help you get connected with Hofstra University. You will meet your leader at 4 p.m. today (September 1). Your check-in information will indicate where to meet your leader. Look for the "Meet Your Welcome Week Leader" symbol throughout this program for scheduled meals and events. Take time to get to know your leader and build friendships with your group members! But, most importantly, have fun and Get Connected!

About Our Staff

@DennisJFoley

A Long Island native, but a New Hampshire resident, Dennis Foley came back to Long Island to pursue a degree in broadcast journalism with a minor in political science. Dennis is thrilled to be a Welcome Week coordinator, as it combines the skills he has learned over the years to help new students become better acclimated to @HofstraU. Commuting from Suffolk County, this junior has been active at Hofstra, most notably being the news director and a morning show host at 88.7 FM Radio Hofstra University (@WRHUhofstra #WRHUnews). When Dennis is not busy on campus (or doing off-campus reporting), he can be found at Bethpage Ballpark in Central Islip enjoying a @LIDucks game or exploring the East End of Long Island.

@LizWeeden

Three years ago Liz moved off @KeukaLake in the @Finger_LakesNY of upstate New York to attend @HofstraU on Long Island. Entering her junior year, she is double majoring in public relations and global studies with a minor in marketing. After studying abroad on the European Odyssey (#travel) last semester, Liz is extremely excited to get back on campus. Around @HofstraU you may run into her while she's coordinating Destination Runway (#charityfashionshow), giving tours as a Pride Guide, promoting Student Government Association's spirit committee (#rollpride), or doing interviews for Studio South (@StudioSouth887) on WRHU-FM (@WRHUhofstra) Radio Hofstra University. Liz loves her hometown ice cream, Seneca Farms (@senecafarms1), watching The Holiday, and chatting with friends on the Unispan. Go Pride!

@KaitlinFrisch

A California beach bunny, Kaitlin traded in her Old Navy flip-flops and Cole surfboard for furry snow boots and a shiny new sled when she came to @HofstraU to pursue a degree in theater arts and creative writing. She is thrilled to be back on the staff for her second year as a Welcome Week coordinator, and can't wait to start welcoming all the new students to @HofstraU. But once Welcome Week (@HUWelcomeWeek) is over she will return to her Danceworks (#Worrrk), Spectrum Players, and Masquerade Musical Theater club meetings, Drama and Dance Department events, and the Axinn Library for late-night studying and group projects (#coffee). In her spare time, she is either rereading the Harry Potter series (@Lord_Voldemort7), watching The Big Bang Theory (#Bazinga), or attending a fitness class.

@FrancisHumes

Originally from Rhode Island, Francis Humes came to Hofstra to study biomedical engineering in hopes to one day change the world of medicine. Francis is so glad to be planning Welcome Week and Beyond Welcome Week programming for the incoming and returning students here @HofstraU. Francis has made his name known on this campus by taking leadership roles such as resident hall president, Sigma Pi fraternity president, and Hofbeats co-president, all before his senior year. If Francis is not trying to run the world, you can always hear him singing his heart out at various events all over campus, exploring his passion for music.

Welcome Week Virtual Folder

In the past, on the first day of Welcome Week, new students received a folder of information and brochures about numerous offices and on-campus resources; this Welcome Week Folder was invaluable when it came to finding out about all that Hofstra University has to offer. However, amid the chaos of goodbyes, check-in, and move-in, it was easy for these papers to get lost in the shuffle. With the Virtual Welcome Week Folder, you will be able to peruse the cocurricular, academic, career, and social offerings at your leisure, on your computer.

Additionally, the Virtual Folder is part of Hofstra's "Blue and Gold Make Green" environmental initiative, as it reduces the amount of paper products distributed during Welcome Week. Instead of providing more than approximately 1,600 new students with close to 30 pages of materials, all this information is available on the Hofstra website.

hofstra.edu/welcomeweek

Swipe for a Chance to Win a Free Apple iPad2!

Hofstra University is giving away two Apple iPad2s, and you could be the lucky recipient! Look for events that have a symbol; when you swipe your HofstraCard at these events, you are automatically entered into the raffle for the Apple iPad2s. The more times you swipe your HofstraCard, the more points you accumulate, and the better your chances of winning are!

Explore Next Door (END) Trip Registration

Registration begins on Thursday, September 1 at 12:30 p.m., and ends on Friday, September 2 at 3 p.m.

Explore everything New York City and Long Island has to offer! Transportation and tickets to these events are FREE and are on a first-come, first-served basis. Log in to the Hofstra portal (My.Hofstra.edu) to register for the trip of your choice. If you don't have a personal computer, you can utilize Hammer Lab, located across from the Joan and Donald E. Axinn Library, South Campus. A confirmation e-mail will be sent to you after you complete registration. Students can sign up for a service trip and another END trip; otherwise, only one trip is allowed per student. Please note: Spending money is necessary for food, souvenirs, and tour guide tips.

Are you the next Josh Hamilton or Robinson Cano? Take your talents to the baseball field as you and your classmates compete in a friendly home run derby at the home of the Hofstra Pride Club Baseball team!

5-8 p.m.

Murder at the Oak Street Juice Joint

Netherlands South, Netherlands Complex, North Campus

Step back into the 1920s when Hofstra was the name of a local resident and warplanes were flying out of Mitchel Field. Take a visit to the Oak Street Juice Joint, a common hangout for the locals. However, something has gone awry and it's not a typical night for the patrons at the Juice Joint. Come participate in this murder mystery! The first 50 students to sign up on the Hofstra portal are guaranteed a chance to participate in the murder mystery.

6-8 p.m.

Honors College Aims of Education Course

Main Dining Room, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

Speaker: Dr. Evan Cornog, Dean, Hofstra University School of Communication

Each year, Hofstra University Honors College (HUHC) invites a senior scholar to speak with incoming HUHC students about her/his own vision of the aims of education. This personalized and singular vision builds upon and draws from the speaker's discipline or field of study. After the presentation, HUHC representatives and other faculty lead small groups of students in reflective conversations about the lecture and their own views on the aims of education. An informal buffet dinner precedes the presentation. Please note: Attendance at this event is required of all entering HUHC students.

6:30 p.m.

Hofstra Volleyball v. Princeton Match and Tailgate

Hofstra P.R.I.D.E. Principles

At Hofstra, we're all about showing our Pride. Whether it's attending an athletic event, volunteering time as a tutor, or joining an organization on campus, students can show their school spirit in a variety of ways. In order to do this, it's important to know what we represent as a community. Be sure to familiarize yourself, since we apply these principles to not only our behavior, but also to academic integrity.

- Personal and Social Responsibility
- Respect for Self and Others
- Integrity, Ethics, and Leadership
- Diversity and Community
- Expression and Free Exchange
