2007-2008 REQUEST FOR RE-EVALUATION

To process a re-evaluation of your application for financial aid based on a change of your parents' financial situation, you must provide additional information and documentation. Information on this form, on your 2007-2008 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), and any supporting documentation will be used to determine whether eligibility for financial aid can be recalculated.

Student's Name: _____ Hofstra ID 700- _____ Social Security # ____ - ____ - ____

Permanent Address: _____ Phone # () _____

Local Address: _____ Phone # () _____

1. Submit a signed copy of your parents' and your 2006 federal income tax return including all schedules and the enclosed Dependent Verification Worksheet.
 2. Provide a signed written explanation and full documentation to support your request i.e. copy of last pay stub, copy of unemployment benefits, letter of termination from employer, letter regarding termination of Social Security benefits, copy of death certificate, etc.

Circle the appropriate condition (A, B, C, or D) below:

- A. A parent who earned money in 2006 has lost his or her job in 2007. This may be a result of a disability, natural disaster or recent termination of employment.
- B. A parent who received unemployment compensation or some untaxed income benefit in 2006 has lost that income or benefit in 2007 (e.g. child support, social security benefits, etc.)
- C. You have already applied for student aid and since that time, your parents have separated, divorced or one parent has died.
- D. A parent has experienced a significant change in his/her financial situation that did not result from one of the above listed conditions. Clearly define the change in financial circumstances in writing, attach this completed form and return to this office.

2007-2008 Verification Worksheet

Federal Student Aid Programs

Dependent

FORM APPROVED
OMB NO. 1845-0041

Your application was selected for review in a process called "Verification." In this process, your school will be comparing information from your application with signed copies of your and your parent(s)' 2006 Federal tax forms, or with W-2 forms or other financial documents. The law says we have the right to ask you for this information before awarding Federal aid. If there are differences between your application information and your financial documents, you or your school may need to make corrections electronically or by using your Student Aid Report (SAR).

Complete this verification form and submit it to your financial aid administrator as soon as possible, so that your financial aid won't be delayed. Your financial aid administrator will help you.

What you should do

1. Collect your and your parent(s)' financial documents (signed Federal income tax forms, W-2 forms, etc.).
2. Talk to your financial aid administrator if you have questions about completing this worksheet.
3. Complete and sign the worksheet—you and at least one parent.
4. Submit the completed worksheet, tax forms, and any other documents your school requests to your financial aid administrator.
5. Your financial aid administrator will compare information on this worksheet and any supporting documents with the information you submitted on your application. You may need to make corrections electronically or by using your SAR.

Your school must review the requested information, under the financial aid program rules (34 CFR, Part 668).
