

Upper-Class Theme Housing Intent Form
Office of Residential Programs

The Office of Residential Programs is proud to announce that it will be continuing upper-class theme housing for the 2011-2012 academic year. To be considered for participation in this housing opportunity, one housing intent form must be submitted for each suite of interested residents. The completed housing intent form is due to the Office of Residential Programs (244 Student Center) no later than Thursday, February 24, 2011.

Once a completed housing intent form is submitted, all accepted students will be contacted by the Office of Residential Programs with information and instructions on how to participate in Upper-Class Theme Housing lottery on Wednesday, March 2, 2011. Please note that contact will be made using your PRIDE email included on your intent form.

To participate in Upper-Class Theme Housing lottery on Wednesday, March 2, 2011 each resident listed on the intent form will need to:

1. Be a current student.
2. Complete a housing application for the 2011-12 academic year
3. Provide a receipt for the $300 housing deposit (due by Tuesday, March 1, 2011)
4. Clear up any outstanding balances with the Office of Student Financial Services by Tuesday, March 1, 2011.
5. Bring a completed Theme Housing application form (available online)

Each resident within a suite will need to be present at the Theme Housing lottery on Wednesday, March 2, 2011 with the above mentioned paperwork and his/her Hofstra ID. If a resident is unable to attend Theme Housing lottery, they may select a proxy to complete the process on his/her behalf with the understanding that the selection made by the proxy is final. Please find specific proxy guidelines and required paperwork on the Office of Residential Programs website.

Please note: Completion of this form does not guarantee acceptance into the theme housing program. Preference will be given to students returning to the theme housing program and to residents who submit their Theme Housing Intent Form prior to the Thursday, February 24, 2011 deadline.
