

IT – Quantities Projects Resume

15 Flower Ct., Hempstead, NY 11550 Phone: (516) 888-0011
email@hotmail.com

PROFILE

M.B.A. with IT background seeking full-time opportunity in IT and Financial management. Core strengths include creative problem solving, systems evaluation, developing process improvements, troubleshooting, financial analysis, and team leadership.

EDUCATION

Frank G. Zarb School of Business, Hofstra University

Hempstead, NY

M.B.A. in Business Computer Information Systems and Finance; GPA: 3.6; December 2004.

Mount Carmel Institute of Management

Bangalore, INDIA

Post Graduate Diploma in Management Information Systems, 2001.

- Awarded Best Researcher for project “Development of Inventory Control Information Systems”.

P.S.G College of Technology

Coimbatore, INDIA

Bachelor of Science in Applied Sciences-Computer Technology, 2000.

EXPERIENCE

Standard and Poor’s, School Evaluation Services

New York, NY

Summer Associate

- Assisted in providing Business Specifications for the Technology Team.
- Involved in the Development of Performance Evaluation Services site for the S&P intranet site.
- Quality Assurance and SAS development efforts.

Hofstra University, Campus Life (9/02 – Present)

Hempstead, NY

Graduate Assistant / Coordinator Public Events

- Creation and Management of Departmental Databases containing Member Portfolios.
- Coordinated University wide events including the Annual Flower Show, Italian festival and Commencement.
- Responsible for general administrative issues.

IT/QUANTITATIVE PROJECTS

- “CLARITAS Information System”: Team lead for a consulting engagement, analyzing IT Infrastructure for CLARITAS, a provider of marketing information solutions, which included recommendations on design and implementation strategies.
- “Development of Inventory Control Information systems”: Designed a user interface using Visual Basic for a manufacturing company to assist in move to electronic inventory management. This included maintenance of database records, generation of reports and increased overall effectiveness.
- “Add on Card for PCs”: Designed and built an add-on card for PCs, which could be used in applications such as EPROM programmer and copier, process controller, logic monitor etc.
- “Chem-Drug Company”: Conducted case study analysis that included capital budgeting assessment, evaluation of financial alternatives and recommendations on the most profitable solution.
- “Wal-Mart –Company Evaluation”: Analyzed the retail industry and company specific information, including utilization of financial models to evaluate company stock performance to make recommendations on the stock.

SKILLS/ACTIVITIES

- Software Skills: C, C++, COBOL, VISUAL BASIC, SAS, DOS, Microsoft Windows, MS Word, Access, Excel and PowerPoint.
- Languages: Fluent in Hindi, Tamil, and Telugu.
- Activities: Member of the Zarb School of Business Career Center, Student Advisory Board and Director of The International MBA/MS Association, Hofstra University: responsible for coordinating events including Industry roundtable, International Alumni networking gala, seminars for immigration issues.