How All Declining Balance Dining Plans Work

After you select and purchase one of the plans, it is activated on your HofstraCard.

All declining balance plans come with a predetermined number of points (dollars). Points are deducted from the proper account each time a purchase is made. It is a condition of residency that all first-year students living on campus must select dining plan A, B or C. If you purchase a commuting student plan and you become a Hofstra resident student your dining assignment will be upgraded automatically to a resident dining plan and you will be responsible for the corresponding price increase. Points are nonrefundable. Insufficient funds or inactivity in using the dining plan shall not exempt you from the financial obligations of this contract. You will not receive a refund if you miss a meal or do not use your dining plan.

Fall semester points may be used from Thursday, August 26, 2010, through Friday, January 21, 2011. Unused fall semester points may be carried over to the spring semester provided you purchase the same plan as the fall semester or one of higher value. If you do not purchase an equal or higher value plan for the spring semester, you shall forfeit any unused points (dollars) as of January 22, 2011. Spring semester points may be used from Saturday, January 22, 2011, through Sunday, May 22, 2011 (spring commencement). All unused points (dollars) are forfeited at that time. The deadlines for dining plan changes and cancellations are September 20, 2010, for the fall 2010 semester, and February 15, 2011, for the spring 2011 semester. No changes or cancellations will be accepted after these dates, regardless of dining plan usage.

Designated dining locations may be closed during holidays or when classes are not in session. All dining plans are tax-exempt.

To the extent multiple dining plan selections or contracts are submitted by you or your parent/guardian, the highest priced plan will apply.

If you have any questions, concerns or special needs, such as medical and/or dietary requirements, please call Dining Services at (516) 463-7050.

I have read and acknowledge the above policies regarding dining plans and agree to be legally bound by these terms and conditions.
