

Learning Preference Survey

I learn best when I

- a. Watch someone show me how
- b. Hear someone tell me how
- c. Try to do it myself

When I read, I often

- a. See what I'm reading in my head
- b. Read out loud or hear the words in my head
- c. Fidget and move to get a sense of the contents

When asked to give directions, I

- a. See the places in my mind or draw them as I give directions
- b. Have no trouble giving them verbally
- c. Have to point or move my body to give them

If I'm unsure how to spell a word, I

- a. Write it on order to see if it looks right
- b. Spell it aloud to see if it sounds right
- c. Write it in order to determine if it feels right

When I write, I

- a. Worry about how neat my words look
- b. Often say the words and sounds to myself
- c. Push hard on my pen or pencil to feel the flow of the letters & words

If I had to remember a list of items, I'd remember them best if I

- a. Wrote them down
- b. Said them over and over to myself
- c. Moved around and used my fingers or body to name and practice the items

I prefer teachers who

- a. Use the board, overhead or powerpoints when they talk
- b. Talk with a lot of expression
- c. Use hands-on activities

When trying to concentrate, I have trouble when

- a. There's a lot of clutter or movement in the room
- b. There's a lot of noise in the room
- c. I have to sit still for a length of time

When solving a problem, I

- a. Write or draw diagram to solve it
- b. Talk myself through it
- c. Use my body or objects to think

When given written directions on how to make or build something, I

- a. Read them silently and try to visualize how the parts will fit or look
- b. Read them aloud as I try to put the parts together
- c. Try to put the parts together and read the directions later

To keep occupied while I'm waiting, I

- a. Look around, stare, read
- b. Talk or listen to others talking
- c. Walk around, manipulate things with my hands, wiggle my feet

If I had to verbally describe something to someone else, I'd

- a. Be brief because I don't like to talk a lot
- b. Go into great detail because I like to talk
- c. Gesture and move around while I talk

If someone was verbally describing something to me, I'd

- a. Try to visualize what he/she was saying
- b. Enjoy listening, but want to interrupt and talk myself
- c. Get bored if the description was long and detailed

When trying to recall names, I remember

- a. Faces, but forget names
- b. Names, but forget faces
- c. The situation when I met the person, but may not remember the name or face