

HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY

Division of Student Affairs
Office of Multicultural & International Student Programs
Women's "Herstory" Month 2012

A Woman Like That

Thursday, March 1, 2012

5:00pm – 7:00pm

The Helene Fortunoff Theater, Monroe Lecture Center, California Avenue, South Campus

"A Woman Like That" is a freewheeling tribute to an artist whose own bold life and inspiring message leaps across centuries to speak to us all. The enduring power of storytelling - in paintings, in films and in our lives is revealed, as the filmmaker learns that who gets to tell the story matters, and that maybe she too, can be "a woman like that."

For more information, please contact Martha Hollander at (516) 463-5058.

Sponsored by The Department of Fine Arts, Design and Art History and the Hofstra Cultural Center.

Have You Heard From Johannesburg: Fair Play

Thursday, March 1, 2012

7:00pm-9:30pm

Breslin Hall Room 211 – "The Screening Room", South Campus

A Documentary about how a sports boycott campaign became the anti-apartheid movement's first victory, and succeeded in culturally isolating the white minority in an arena of passionate importance.

Featuring a Q & A with producer/ director Connie Field.

For more information, please contact Christian Mpoy at cmpoy1@pride.hofstra.edu

Sponsored by Hofstra Afrikan Students Association, Collegiate Women of Color, Center for Civic Engagement, Radio, Television, Film Department's MFA Program in Documentary Studies and Production.

The Queen In Me

Monday, March 5, 2012

8:30pm - 9:30pm

Student Center Plaza Room East, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

Learn about women in the Bible and discover the queen in you! Fun arts and crafts!

For more information, please contact Sarah Jalal sjalal1@pride.hofstra.edu

Sponsored by Chabad at Hofstra

Women's 'Herstory' Month Opening Reception

Wednesday, March 7, 2012

11:15am - 1:00pm

Student Center Plaza Rooms, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

Women's History Month honors and remembers those women who were not only visionaries, but also ground-breakers and history makers. Join the Office of Multicultural and International Student Programs and the rest of Hofstra's community help pay tribute to the women who have paved the way, and celebrate the accomplishments of women from both the past and present!

Come hear this year's keynote, enjoy student performances, great food and so much more!!

For more information, please contact Carla Proietti at Carla.G.Proietti@hofstra.edu or Tiffany Steele at Tiffany.G.Steele@hofstra.edu or call (516)463-6796.

Sponsored by The Office of Multicultural & International Student Programs

GAYDAR: Guess the Straight Women

Wednesday, March 7, 2012

8:00pm – 10:00pm

Student Center Theater, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

This game-show style program is fun and engaging. Five panelists, four lesbian, one straight. It's the audience's job to figure out which one is heterosexual. Through the process of guessing, stereotypes will be broken down and audience members will see there is a lot more to a person than their sexual orientation.

For more information, please contact Hofstra@ThePrideNetwork.org or 516-463-6047

Sponsored by The Pride Network

Water - Hofstra SASA Movie and Discussion

Thursday, March 8, 2012

7:00pm - 9:30pm

Student Center Theater, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

Water strongly portrays the struggles and treatment of widowed women in India during the time of British rule. Following the movie will be an open discussion between Hofstra faculty and students regarding treatment of women in India, and all around the world.

For more information, please contact Megha Marwaha mmarwa1@pride.hofstra.edu

Sponsored by South Asian Student Association

Women's History Month Lecture Rabbi Barbara Aiello Italy's First Female Rabbi "The Jews of Southern Italy: A Lost History Rediscovered"

Tuesday, March 13, 2012

8:00pm – 10:00pm

Student Center Theater, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

Rabbi Aiello's mission starts in southern Italy where she works to help "anousim" (Italians whose ancestors were forced into conversion from Judaism) discover and connect with their Jewish roots. Rabbi Aiello extends the hand of Jewish welcome to Italians and Italian Americans who want to know more about their Jewish heritage.

For more information, please contact the Hofstra Cultural Center at 516-463-5669.

Sponsored by the Hofstra Cultural Center

Mind, Body, and Soul

Wednesday, March 21, 2012

8:00pm - 10:00pm

Plaza Middle & East, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

This event will celebrate women through a range of entertainment from performances to poetry. Women especially will receive free gifts and learn about many other great women of color that have contributed society. Meals will be served.

For more information, please contact Carrie at cwalke12@pride.hofstra.edu or 917-282-7481

Sponsored by African Caribbean Society Co-sponsored by Sigma Gamma Rho and HOLA

Women, War & Peace: Pray the Devil Back to Hell

Thursday, March 22, 2012

7:00pm - 9:30pm

Breslin Hall Room 211 – "The Screening Room", South Campus

With depth and complexity, Women, War & Peace spotlights the stories of women in conflict zones from Bosnia to Afghanistan and Colombia to Liberia, placing women at the center of an urgent dialogue about conflict and security, and reframing our understanding of modern warfare. Featuring Q & A with Executive Producer Gini Reticker.

For more information, please contact Christian Mpoy at cmpoy1@pride.hofstra.edu

Sponsored by Hofstra Afrikan Students Association, Collegiate Women of Color, Center for Civic Engagement, Radio, Television, Film Department's MFA Program in Documentary Studies and Production

The Wild Women of Song

Saturday, March 24, 2012

8:00pm – 10:00pm

The Helene Fortunoff Theater, Monroe Lecture Center, California Avenue, South Campus

Great Gal Composers of the Jazz Era. The Wild Quintet and jazz and blues vocalist Pamela Rose make a compelling case for the enduring contributions of women to America's treasure trove of popular music, from Alberta Hunter to Peggy Lee, in this multi-media showpiece that shines a light on the forgotten contributions of the prolific, feisty and talented women of Tin Pan Alley (1920-1950).

For tickets and more information please contact the John Cranford Adams Playhouse Box Office at (516)463-6644.

Sponsored by Hofstra Entertainment

Real Talk: Loving vs. Virginia and Marriage Equality: Is Gay the New Interracial?

Tuesday, March 27, 2012

9:00pm – 11:00pm

Plaza Room Middle, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

Join The Pride Network and Black Student Union as we discuss similarities and differences between the fight for Interracial Marriage Equality and Same-Sex Marriage Equality.

For more information, please contact Hofstra@ThePrideNetwork.org or BSU.Hofstra@gmail.com

Sponsored by the Black Student Union and The Pride Network

Women "Herstory" Month Program Sponsors

Office of the Dean of Students

Office of Multicultural & International Student Programs

Office of Student Leadership & Activities

African Caribbean Society

Black Student Union

Center for Civic Engagement

Chabad at Hofstra

Collegiate Women of Color

Department of Fine Arts, Design and Art History

Hofstra Afrikan Students Association (HASA)

Hofstra Cultural Center

Hofstra Entertainment

Hofstra Organization Latin America (HOLA)

The Pride Network

Radio, Television, Film Department's MFA Program

Sigma Gamma Rho

South Asian Student Association