- VI. Old Business
 - a. Proposal: Class Councils—Senator J. Wells
 - i. Senator J. Wells explains the legislation.
 - ii. President P. DiSilvio states that during the break a few people worked on this to clean it up. The purpose is much clearer. You can be a senator, but you can't be on cabinet and the e-board of class councils. Added a treasurer section. They will get a budget line from SGA like the J-Panel. It's a lot clearer, but gives plenty of leeway. Vote yes to give people a different way to be a part of this community.
 - iii. Senator B. Weitzberg asks is there a budget cap that is going to be given.
 1. Senator J. Wells answers it's proposed in the SGA budget.
 2. President P. DiSilvio answers it would be another line.
 - iv. Club Affairs Chair A. Lucci asks will Vice President Johnson help fund for these.
 1. President P. DiSilvio answers various administrations on campus has pledged their support, we can't say who will do what, but they will be helping us out.
 - v. Student Services Chair A. Kowal asks are any of the students actually interested in being a part of this.
 1. Vice President J. Berry answers it was created last year with the intention upperclassmen feeling out of the loop.
 2. President P. DiSilvio answers in the class programming committees there are two people who are not in SGA.
 - vi. Senator S. Erickson asks would they be doing anything other than being representatives.
 1. Senator J. Wells answers they would be responsible for throwing two different types of events.
 - vii. Senator L. Miedreich moves to extend questions by two minutes.
 - viii. Senator H. Qazi seconds.
 - ix. Vote passes.

- x. Senator L. Miedreich asks how are class councils and class programming different.
 - 1. President P. DiSilvio answers because class programming was created as an interim until class councils were performed.
- xi. Spirit Chair L. Pleiman asks is there any requirements for membership.
 - 1. Vice President J. Berry answers it would be anyone in the class.
- xii. Senator F. Van Keuren asks have there been programs of these sorts in the past.
 - 1. President P. DiSilvio answers at least twice in the past, the last time they were run through the alumni office and it just didn't work.

 - 3. Delegate E. Sit answers that he feels like he has a lot to bring, and truly enjoys Student Services.
 - 4. Delegate M. Glouch answers that he is responsible, passionate.
- viii. Senator J. Wells asks name one specific that you want to fix or change.
 - 1. Delegate J. Grady answers that people are struggling, he wants to help people with financial aide.
 - 2. Delegate M. Glouch answers that he wants to fix the excessive amount of red tape.
 - 3. Delegate J. Campbell answers campus life in general, dealing with problems.
 - 4. Delegate E. Sit answers that he wants to bring students more together. Want to get the word out there more.
- ix. Vice President J. Berry states that after confirming with Rules Chair A. Mellis and Ethics and Conduct Chair M. Rosner, the other resignation will be accepted.
- x. Senator F. Van Keuren states that this vote actually does count, Delegate M. Glouch is very passionate and responsible. Had a course with him, he displayed all of these aptitudes. He is going to push this organization further.
- xi. Club Affairs Chair A. Lucci states that Delegate M. Glouch is a proven leader, he is the vice president of EMET. He's a huge science activist.
- xii. Public Relations Chair T. Kim states that Delegate J. Campbell last semester really wanted to get signatures, was in the library.

- xiii. Senator S. Erickson states that she doesn't know Delegate J. Campbell personally, but he seems different from everybody else, should get his perspective.
- xiv. Senator K. Smith states that he knows Delegate E. Sit from around campus, he's a really sociable guy. He raises his hand right away.
- xv. Student Services Chair A. Kowal states that Delegate E. Sit is a really nice guy he was talking asking questions. He loved it because it was about the students. He's a great guy, he doesn't seem like he has hidden agendas.

Relay For Life-

Fundraise! Mark your calendars, April 18- April 19

Lackmann-

Meeting with Eisa and Matthew Friday, March 6- Complaints:

More employees at the Omelet Station, Organic Grill, Café on the Quad, and Hofstra Deli:

There are employees, but because everything is made to order, there are lines

Have The Lion's Den open with Kate and Willy's:

On Fridays and Saturdays Lion's Den closes for student events

More dinner options at the Omelet Pan station:

Has been implemented

Change the Bits 'N Bytes sauces; improve the frozen lettuce; have more cashiers working:

He is looking into these complaints

More options at Maui Tacos:

Looking into a customize menu option

Clean pizza cutters between orders:

He will let the employees know

Fix ice dispensers in the Student Center:

Unfortunately the ice comes from another machine in the kitchen so the ice melts in the soda holder causing it to fall faster

Panini person at Bytes 'N Bytes:

He will let the grill employees know that they must help those in the Panini line as well

Library-

Tyler has emailed Dean Rubey of the Library for a meeting to discuss the library hours. Last two weeks of the semester should be 24 hours.

Administration Dinners-

Next dinner March 18 with Residential Programs to answer questions about the Housing Process. Pizza and cookies to be served. Portal Announcements, Hofcast, Atrium Banner, Flyers, Facebook Event, RA announcements, and table tents to promote the event.

Special Project-

Andrew, Edward, Mike, and Ashley will be working on this.

Complaints: Meeting with Vice President Johnson was cancelled this past Monday, March 9

Bus Schedule: 10-15 minutes late to schedule; if bus comes early they don't wait; the bus should wait 5 minutes at the station before leaving; 25 minutes early to station for drop off;

Pool Schedule- Why does it close at 8:00 PM instead of 11:00 PM

Public Safety takes very long to respond to lock outs.

Health and Wellness Center is prescribing wrong medications and diagnosing students incorrectly.
