Sports Journalism and Broadcasting Institute
Continuing Education

Student: Brendan May

The relationships I began and fostered, during my three years at the Summer Sportscasting Camp, have helped drive me to choose broadcasting as a career. The personal touch the instructors gave to me and the knowledge they imparted on me has given me the confidence that I can be successful. Although it is phenomenally fun and a week to remember, bear in mind: this is not a fantasy camp.

If you're ready to work, learn, and study this is the camp for you. If you love sports, you will make a ton of friends and have a great time. These are your people. These are the people that like what you like and care about what you care about.

At the end of the day, If you're a huge sports fan, and have a strong work ethic, this is the best way to spend a week of your summer.
