Before I began my time at Hofstra, I wasn't fully confident in my abilities. I was nervous about meeting new people from a completely new state. However, after attending these classes over the last two years, I have gotten 100% better.

The guys who teach these classes are super friendly and always willing to help you improve on things to make you better. The other students I met are awesome people. To this day I keep in contact with many of them and we have become great friends.

So, if you want to become a sports broadcaster and don't know where to start, I strongly recommend Hofstra Sports Broadcasting program and I can guarantee you, you won't regret making this decision.
