

Hofstra University Continuing Education

News Release

Hofstra University Continuing Education
250 Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY 11549
(516) 463-7200

Contact: Debbi Honorof, debbi.honorof@hofstra.edu, 516-463-6331,
516-225-3098 (cell)

For Immediate Release: February 18, 2009

Hofstra University Continuing Education Offers Personal Enrichment Courses

Art Appreciation Course taught by Chief Curator of Nassau County Museum of Art

Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY – This spring, Hofstra University Continuing Education offers a wide range of courses for personal enrichment, including art, music, winetasting, writing, film studies, digital photography, Spanish, and a new art appreciation course, “Pop Culture, Art and Celebrity,” taught by Franklin Hill Perrell, Chief Curator of Nassau County Museum of Art. The course begins on March 2 and looks at the lives and work of famous artists and focuses on what makes these individuals and their artwork important and enduring. The course also puts these artists in context with the music, literature, and events of their times.

To register for any of these courses or for more information, visit ce.hofstra.edu or call (516) 463-7200.

Hofstra University Continuing Education offers a broad range of workshops, seminars, conferences, lectures, events and courses in business, technology, adult education, and community learning. Hofstra University is a dynamic private institution where students can choose from more than 145 undergraduate and more than 160 graduate programs in liberal arts and sciences; business; engineering; communication; education, health and human services; and honors studies, as well as a School of Law.

###

PHOTO: Franklin Hill Perrell, Chief Curator, Nassau County Museum of Art

