Hofstra University Continuing Education Offers Free Workshop on the Art of Observation

Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY - Hofstra University Continuing Education offers a FREE workshop, The Art of Observation: Heightening Your Sense of Wonder in a Busy World on Wednesday, January 21, 2009 from 7:30-9 p.m. at the Mack Student Center, North Campus. To register or for more information, visit <http://ce.hofstra.edu> or call (516) 463-7200.

Join Franklin Hill Perrell, chief curator of Nassau County Museum of Art, watercolor artist Vivian Swift, author of When Wanderers Cease to Roam, and colored pencil artist Arlene Steinberg, author of Masterful Color, as they discuss how taking time out of our busy world to observe art and nature can lead to a heightened sense of wonder, and how the power of observation helps artists create art. Mr. Perrell and Ms. Steinberg will be teaching Hofstra University Continuing Education courses this spring. The panel will be moderated by Beth Levinthal, director of the Hofstra University Museum. Books will be available for purchase and signing by the authors.

Hofstra University Continuing Education offers a broad range of workshops, seminars, conferences, lectures, events and courses in business, technology, adult education, and community learning.
