GLOBAL EXPLORATIONS

at the HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY MUSEUM

The Global Explorations series explores facets of artistic output from the world's diverse cultures. Sharing the riches of the Hofstra University Museum Collections and exhibitions, the series allows participants to closely examine authentic works of art, while offering opportunities to engage in interesting and thought-provoking experiences and discussions.

All sessions are held in the Emily Lowe Gallery (behind Emily Lowe Hall, South Campus)

Fall 2016

Friday, September 16, 2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

The Changing Long Island Landscape

Karen T. Albert, Hofstra University Museum associate director of exhibitions and collections, leads this session inspired by the exhibition Over the River: Transforming Long Island. She focuses on the varied artistic responses to the evolving landscape of the region.

Friday, October 21, 2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Music as Metaphor

Led by Kristy Caratzola, the Museum's collections manager, this session features works of art from non-Western cultures such as Japan, Africa and Mesoamerica and the musical significance of the individual objects.

Friday, November 18, 2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Long Island and the Creative Word

Led by Kelly McMasters, Hofstra University assistant professor of English and director of publishing studies, participants study select works in the exhibition Over the River: Transforming Long Island and develop their own creative written responses.
