John Davis Adams Correspondence Collection, 1894-1978
.5 cubic ft.

John Davis Adams (b.1860), father of former Hofstra University president John Cranford Adams (1903-1986), was an assistant editor of Harper's Magazine from 1893-1895. Adams also served as the director of Lincoln Settlement House in Boston from 1903-1920.

The collection is composed largely of correspondence to Adams from various authors and literary notables in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Also included are bibliographies for each correspondent.
