Weisenberg, Harvey, 1933- . Collection, 1992-2012.

1.0 c.f.

Harvey Weisenberg was born on December 31st, 1933 in the Bronx, New York City. He lives in Long Beach with his wife Ellen, with whom he has five children. Weisenberg was a member of the New York State Assembly from the 20th district, which encompasses various towns including: Long Beach, Lido Beach, Atlantic Beach, Oceanside, East Rockaway, Island Park, the Five Towns, and also parts of Rockville Centre and Lynbrook. His political party is Democratic, and he served in office from 1989 to 2014. During his time in office, he assisted in authoring and passing over 300 bills. Prior to his career as a politician, Harvey Weisenberg served as a police officer for the City of Long Beach. In 1976, Weisenberg served on the town's City Council, and in both 1977 and 1980 he was elected as its President. Additionally, he worked in the East Meadow School District for over 20 years (1967-1989) as a teacher, and eventually became an administrator. A lifelong resident of Long Beach, Mr. Weisenberg graduated from the town's high school in 1952. He first attended Niagara University on a basketball scholarship, but then earned his Bachelor of Science degree from New York University in 1958. He went on to achieve his Master of Science degree from Hofstra University in 1962. He also attended Long Island University C.W. Post Campus, where he earned a professional diploma in administration in 1981.

This collection includes photographs and DVDs portraying numerous aspects of Harvey Weisenberg's political career.

This collection is divided into 3 different series.
