- v. Programming Chair Chelsea Gillyard nominates Senator David Caputo
 - 1. He accepts
- vi. Programming Chair Chelsea Gillyard nominates Senator Talyn Cortez
 - 1. She declines
- vii. Alyssa O'Brien
 - 1. She thinks that one of the most important things we need in the Rules Chair position right now is stability. She knows the ins and outs of the Constitution, and she believes this is a very good role for her. She is also aware that archiving is very important right now. She is very comfortable with the website and how to update it. She believes she would be excellent at going through Constitutions. Her greatest weakness is that she tends to obsess over little tiny details instead of looking at the bigger picture. Her greatest strength is that she is very adaptable and is willing to work hard to learn the position.
 - 2. Questions
 - a. Student Services Chair Jesse Lender asks what other clubs she is involved in.
 - i. She is involved with Intervarsity.
 - b. Public Relations Chair Billy Finnegan asks what experience she has gotten in SGA that has made her fit for this job,
 - i. She works with the website so she is good at that. She has also been a member of the Public Relations committee so she has learned how that works.
 - c. Senator Gary Duff asks what she thinks her leadership style is.
 - i. One of the things that is very important to her is to lead by example. If she was to have leadership, she wouldn't be afraid to get her hands dirty.
 - d. Appropriations Chair Megan Andrews asks if she is available on Friday at 2:00 pm

- i. She is!
 - e. Senator Tevon Hyman asks if she will be able to attend the Registration committee meetings.
 - i. She has class but there is only one meeting left this semester
- viii. Senator David Caputo
 1. He is running because he loves being a part of SGA and he feels it will be an asset to be Rules Chair. He believes that he will be very useful in this position. He would have to change the Monday night Rules meeting time. He hopes to further work with clubs so that they have a better understanding of the Rules. He has also spoken to a few club leaders and they seem to not be clear on the policy series. He hopes to strengthen the trust between clubs and SGA.
 2. Questions
 - a. Appropriations Chair Megan Andrews says that a big role will be archiving documents and updating. Does he feel that he has the skills necessary to do that?
 - i. He feels is is organized and that a good way to learn is to try something new. He would take this task on.
 - b. Appropriations Chair Megan Andrews asks if he is available at 2:00 on Friday for Cabinet meetings
 - i. He is.
 - c. Spirit Chair Melanie Perry asks if he feels comfortable leading other committee members
 - i. He is.
 - d. Senator Tevon Hyman asks if he will be able to attend the Registration Committee meeting this semester.
 - i. Yes he is available.
 - e. Programming Chair Chelsea Gillyard asks what his greatest strength and greatest weakness are
 - i. His greatest strength is that he is a determined person. His greatest weakness is that he sometimes gets flustered but he is working on that.
 - f. Comptroller Yeri Lee asks what his major is
 - i. He is a marketing major
 - g. Senator Talyn Cortez asks when he will change the meeting time to
 - i. He would like the change it to Wednesday at 6:00 pm
