

A graduate degree opens doors.

Learn more about Hofstra University's graduate programs.

Hofstra University offers graduate students almost 150 programs in the arts and sciences, education and allied human services, business and communication, all at Hofstra's accessible Nassau County location. Classes are conveniently scheduled during the day and the evening, and students have full access to our highly qualified faculty and excellent resources.

- Frank G. Zarb School of Business: M.B.A., M.S., Executive M.B.A. and advanced certificate programs
- School of Education and Allied Human Services: M.A., M.H.A., M.S. Ed, Ed. D. and advanced certificate programs
- Hofstra College of Liberal Arts and Sciences: M.A., Au.D., Ph.D. and advanced certificate programs
- School of Communication: M.A. in speech communication and rhetorical studies
- New College: M.A. in interdisciplinary studies

New for 2006

- Master of Arts in Mental Health Counseling provides students with the skills and knowledge-base for effective mental health counseling practice, and satisfies the educational requirements for mental health counseling licensure in New York State.
- Master of Science in Education in Rehabilitation Counseling in Mental Health prepares students as professional counselors to assist persons with disabilities, and qualifies students for New York State license examination for mental health practitioners.
- Master of Arts in Journalism offers working journalists a choice of specialization in either science/health or business reporting.
- Master of Arts in Creative Arts Therapy prepares students for clinical art therapy by in-class learning and clinical applications. This is a New York State licensure qualifying degree.

Anticipated Fall 2006

- M.B.A. in Sports and Entertainment Management will prepare students for leadership in the sports, media, music, event management and gaming industries.

For information, call 1-800-HOFSTRA, ext. 690 or visit www.hofstra.edu/graduate

HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY

WWW.HOFSTRA.EDU/GRADUATE

