Student Government Association
Hofstra University
April 13, 2023

Call to order

Meeting Called to order at 6:39PM EST

A. Quorum Call

- a. Quorum set at 18

B. New Business

- a. Chair Jackson moves to open the gallery
 - i. Motion seconded
 - ii. Motion passed
- b. Chanda Washington Visits Senate!
 - i. I have been here for about 2 months now and want to share who I am and how I got here! I am originally from Mississippi and I always had a vision to work at the Washington Post. Along the way, people urged me to consider other plans and I had an amazing teacher who inspired me. I majored in journalism at Arkansas State and I did end up at the Washington Post. I spent 16 years there and worked through multiple departments and I left due to the internet changing the journalism I knew. I did get to have an opportunity to work with the community while doing journalism as well. I reinvented myself and worked in the DC government. I was career through one administration and then demoted when the new administration came in. I used the demotion to close a gap, the gap that I filled was the Washington Post. 8 years later, I was still the mayor's communication point. Hofstra then knocked on my door and ask me to do government affairs, and Dr. Poser offered me the position and here I am now. In this role, I feel like there has to be a connection between my office and the students, whether it is governmental affairs or community. We want our voices to matter and to have our community feel safe. When I leave, I want an establishment that is left behind where administration and students have a strong bond.

1. Senator Guenfound: What are more ways for Hofstra to get involved with our local community? Are there any new ideas?
 - a. I personally am learning the area around Hofstra right now, so I am going to meet the Long Island association and more people to gauge where we can aid and how far we can reach. I know you all have classes and are students but I want to make sure that we can get out there and marry it with students to make an impact.
2. Chair Pandit: Could you describe how you want your next few years in this position to look like in a few words?
 - a. I would use the words, “learn”, “engaging”, “chill”, “successful”, “excited”. I want to be able to learn and grow here and have you grow along with me. I want to be engaging to allow our students to talk to me. I also want to be chill because I want to be calm for people and our university. I want to be successful in creating more and more connections and I do not want to be bored. When I become bored, I need to hop and do something.
3. Senator Tauro: What message do you have for people who are trying to grow and reinvent themselves?
 - a. Don’t be afraid to just try. Don’t put yourself in a box where people say this is what you’re supposed to do. Do not let others bring you down and do not let others tell you what you are capable of or what you can do. Take the chances. Whatever it is you believe in, hold on to it.
4. Senator Egolf: what’s your favorite thing that you ever wrote about?
 - a. I was actually an editor at the Washington Post, not a reporter. But I have written things. I actually was in a program where there was a session in Florida to improve your skills. There was a detailed writing assignment and mine was about the day I went to the Washington Post but the cliffhanger was that it was also the day I met my husband. We were paired up to read our writing and I loved doing that.

5. Senator Egolf: What's the most valuable lesson you learned at each of your past jobs?
 - a. I held on to my convictions through much of my jobs. At the Post, I learned how to be a better manager, and I had a writer that wrote something with an extreme error made to it, but I learned that now when I manage, I advocate for my people extra hard and I go past what the policy says. The DC government taught me the value of partnerships and to be responsive and a good person to others. Hofstra, I will get there.
6. Senator Wong: What are some tips that helped you in your journalism career?
 - a. For tips in journalism you need to know how to write. The best way is to just keep writing no matter what. Also read other writers and learn how they craft their stories. Also I would recommend gaining an internship.
7. Senator Wong: What is the best piece of advice you could give based on every position you have held?
 - a. It is all in keeping and maintaining relationships and connections. You have to be honest and straightforward.
8. Chair Jackson: How did you get into Sports Media?
 - a. There is this program called Sports Media Institute and it was a 2 week bootcamp, that program is still around today. I would love to tell you more about it and we can set up a meeting.
9. Chair Jackson: Favorite memory of Maryland?
 - a. I don't know if I have a favorite memory but it is home. My kids are there, my husband, and it is my home above all.
10. Associate Bell: How can students reach out to you?
 - a. I can be reached by email
chanda.washington@hofstra.edu
11. Vice President Singh: What has been your favorite moment of Hofstra so far?

- a. It was when I met with the students including Will and Julie, Steven and Ashley. In all fairness, I haven't had a bad experience yet.

c. Alumni Panel

- i. With: Thomas Doherty, Bernice Aquino, Calob Congdon, and Afsah Shareef

1. Afsah: I graduated in May of spring 2022, my favorite memory of SGA was the formal. Currently I'm working as a paralegal in NYC, and if anyone has any questions, reach out to me.
2. Calob: I'm still a student at Hofstra, i will be graduating this semester, I used to be the programming chair. My favorite memory in SGA was the evening with Trevor Noah. I was so happy that the event happened. And I'm teaching right now.
3. Bernice: I was last year's VP of the 86th Senate, I was the facilities and operations chair. My favorite memory of SGA was the evening of Trevor Noah, and just the overall experiences I've had. I'm in grad school getting my MBA, and I'm working currently.
4. Thomas: I was a senator in the 85th Senate and Comms chair in the 86th Senate. My favorite memory is a snap cup that I still have with me now. I graduated in May of 2022 with a B.A. in PR and I'm working at a firm right now.

- ii. Chair DeCrescenzo: What are some things you learned through SGA?

1. Afsah: I feel like SGA has helped me with confidence and getting comfortable with speaking to different authorities.
2. Calob: I would say advocacy, and it made me be able to advocate for my career. Also management skills as well and learning how to be a good resource.
3. Bernice: I would say leadership skills are the best thing I learned. Also to stay true to yourself and stick to your guts.
4. Thomas: I learned that I was not fit at that point to be a leader. But taking the opportunity to put yourself in a leadership position is great and was something I learned through SGA.

- iii. Senator Egolf: Can you read your favorite snap?

1. Thomas: I have a bunch of snaps in a box that are my favorite.

- iv. Chair Jackson: What is your favorite memory from Hofstra?
 - 1. Afsah: For me it was creating the identity-based club Nari. And SGA really helped me in getting confident in making it.
 - 2. Calob: For me it was being in the orientation staff, I met so many new people, and had great experiences.
 - 3. Bernice: My favorite memory was my last Fall Fest which was T-Pain
 - 4. Thomas: I think it was Spring Fest of my senior year, and I was able to see how everyone had grown in all different positions and I had lots of fun with those friends. Also anything before the pandemic.
- v. Chair Jackson: What is your best piece of advice for post-graduation?
 - 1. Afash: Apply early! It is always good to apply early and apply to multiple places if you can!
 - 2. Calob: Practice interview skills, it could come down to who was better prepared to sell themselves.
 - 3. Bernice: Please do not compare yourself to others because you should just focus on you and your employment. You all have your own path!
 - 4. Thomas: I feel like being able to give yourself space and expectations is one of the most important things. Your life will not always be due dates but it is about finding yourself after graduation.
- vi. Senator Geunfound: Did you ever regret not having another position of leadership on campus or was SGA something that was your final position?
 - 1. Afsah: I think the best thing to do is to focus on what you can do with the position you hold. You can still gain skills from the experience that you've had. If you take time with your positions you can explain things very strongly.
 - 2. Calob: You never know where your talents are going to lie best and if you aren't chosen for a position all you have to say is that it wasn't the right time and you move on.
 - 3. Bernice: I would say that you shouldn't look at leadership positions as just something to add to your resume. SGA added value to my college experience. Make sure it's something that you could excel in but also have a good experience.

4. Thomas: I think my advice would be similar to Bernice's. I think you need to have purpose behind your position. SGA is a resume builder but what resume are you curating, what could the positions you hold do for your resume. I also think knowing what the position does and how you would put your own passion into it. I would also say think about how much you can take on.
- vii. Vice president Singh: What are some challenges that you faced? And what did you learn from it?
1. Afsah: Not everything will go your way and you need to be able to come to terms with this. And be grateful for everything that you have.
 2. Calob: My biggest challenge was building excitement and motivation with new initiatives but even if they aren't going well, you need to market what you are trying to do and you need to make it seem to be very beneficial.
 3. Bernice: I think being on E-Board during the 86th Senate was sometimes difficult. Engaging with people and building excitement was difficult. Also learning how to work with other people can be challenging as well. It teaches you how to collaborate with others.
 4. Thomas: A lot of the challenges I faced were with time management. That was hard to come to terms with, also understanding that not everything will go your way. It is helpful to not have everything go your way so you can learn to navigate and manage the emotions that come with it.
- viii. Bernice: I would like a highlight reel of anything happening with SGA members currently.
1. Chair Jackson: I am personally very proud of my committee for keeping me afloat and I am so proud of how far the @Hofstra series has come.
 2. Chair Giovannangelo: I am very proud of pushing the 18th credit even farther than before.
 3. Senator Greenlaw: We started a Constitutional review group.
 4. Chair Stadeker: My biggest thing that we were able to accomplish was finally bring the free menstrual products to campus, we have been fostering relationships between students and Public safety, and creating even more events on campus.

5. Chair Jackson: I am very proud of how far our new senators have come so far and they have flourished and grown.
6. Chair Pandit: For CR highlights have been meeting with clubs and helping them flourish. Reassigning office spaces, and changing the club recognition process. It feels like the community is truly coming together.
7. Chair Jackson: I'm proud of how SGA's relationship has grown with President Poser, and how we have a connection with her.
8. Vice President Singh: Our Facilities and Operations chair is not here, but he has gotten clocks in places all across campus. He also works a lot with Compass and advocates for food equity and is doing an overall great job. Also my favorite moments have been with the E-Board.
9. Senator Greenlaw: We also went to a Brooklyn Nets game together and it was a great night.
10. President Germaine: Seeing everyone grow and seeing how many of our leaders have started in their first years and then keep growing, is amazing.
 - a. Thomas: I did write some more notes and I want to say do not be afraid to admit your mistakes and being able to correct yourself is a good growth. Also do not be afraid to admit that you do not know something! I think SGA is very special and I am looking forward to the changes and evolutions that you will experience!

April 6, 2023

Call to order

Meeting Called to order at 6:35 PM EST

A. Quorum Call

- a. Quorum set at 14

B. New Business

- a. Chair Anniballi moves to open the gallery
 - i. Motion seconded
 - ii. Motion passed
- b. Brittany Rhoden visits Senate!
 - i. I am Brit, I am the Title IX supervisor and I wanted to come here specifically this month as April is sexual assault month. I am open to meeting with all students and can be reached in my office, on email or over the phone. I also have a calendly link that is always live.

1. Senator Tauro: In terms of what students can do, what resources are there for students to help others that may have an issue with sexual assault?
 - a. If you are ever aware of something that has happened, you can come directly to me, you can email the title ix email, or you can use the link on the HOfstra website. After this is filed, I will do some outreach to the person affected and we go over accommodations and what can be done to support the student. Friends are also allowed to come either to support their friends, or to talk one on one with me to discuss how to talk about the situation and how you can help or even if the situation is affecting you even if it is not directly harmful to you.
2. Chair Atlas: How can SGA grow to foster our relationship with your office and
 - a. Having students voices on our committee is amazing and posting our flyers if you are not on the committee. If there are concerns being raised that are general, please bring those forward to me so we can begin to have this conversation and grow in how we support each other and the student body.
3. Comptroller Fountain: This is more specific to my role as an RA. If there is no contact between students and they feel like there needs to be something else put into place, what should they do?
 - a. I think the best option would be to come to me and we can discuss the logistics and options. We can always discuss next steps and what can and cannot be done
4. Chair Pandit: What initiatives have you done on Campus and out of those what is the most meaningful?
 - a. We had Love, Sex, adn Friendship weeks. We have the safe center tabling in the atrium, we have denim day, take back the night, and more tabling events. We are trying to push awareness and I am hoping to start an Active Minds chapter on Hofstra. All of these are very meaningful but I really do love having the feedback from the students.

5. Chair Stadeker: There is an individual on campus with multiple title IX infractions, and we were wondering what happens when they do have multiple infractions and what is done?
 - a. It really does depend. What folks think can be very different from the truth and it is really dependent on what the reporting individual wants to have happen. The university does have an obligation to conduct an investigation when needed but it is again very dependent on the situation.
6. Chair Stadeker: Does the Title IX office monitor social media or apps to see if infractions are occurring?
 - a. The office does not monitor social media but social media, and screenshots can be sent in. Since a lot of these apps have anonymous features it can be challenging to find who it is or how to approach the situation.
7. Chair Stadeker: Where can students access crime statistics for Hofstra?
 - a. It is on the Public Safety website. The campus climate survey is also a way we collect data.
8. Vice President Singh: As we start to reach the end of our year, what can we look forward to and help support?
 - a. I am working on having particular training to be offered as well as basic Title IX training. I am building a consent workshop and bystander intervention. We also want to transform our website to be less text heavy.
9. Associate Bell: In regards to associates, how can we spread the message?
 - a. If there is anything you can do with elements of wellness or awareness, I would love to partner with you to give perspective. I am happy to share my skills and knowledge in this area. I would say to continue encouraging students to be actively learning, becoming more comfortable with reporting and talking to me, and reducing the stigma.
10. Chair Atlas: Where is your office?

- a. Wellness and Campus living center, I am in the last door on the right from the front entrance.

c. Resolution

- i. Chair Staderker and Chair Pandit: We are tired of thoughts and prayers statements and as a student government association, we need to discuss the gravity of this. We want to reach out to the community so they know there are people out there that want to support them and that we have resources on campus. We worked hard to discuss all resources that could be added to this document and it is too often that we see these events happen. We are open to edit this and to ask questions regarding this.
 - 1. Chair DeCrescenzo moves to propose language that “From January 1st to March 29th, 2023”
 - a. Motion seconded
 - b. Motion passed
 - 2. Chair Atlas moves to replace “propel” with “compel” in the 1st paragraph under let it be resolved
 - a. Motion seconded
 - b. Motion passed
 - 3. Chair Anniballi moves to hold an unmoderated caucus for 10 minutes
 - a. Motion seconded
 - b. Motion passed
 - i. Chair DeCrescenzo: The first whereas and the second whereas gave gaps between them. Is there a space meant to be there?
 - ii. Chair DeCrescenzo: Should we cite where the Amanda quote comes from?
 - iii. Chair Atlas: Should there be an extra space between the two sections?
 - 1. Chair DeCrescenzo: I think it just happened to have a space between them
 - 2. Chair Pandit: If you want to see it as the same spacing that can be friendly
 - iv. Chair Anniballi: I think it may be beneficial to take the quote out of the resolution but place it into the email that is sent out

1. Chair DeCrescenzo: I think it can be coupled with a short description of the resolution
- v. Senator Guenfound: With let it be resolved, I feel like “Sga much work..” is repetitive as it is stated in back to back paragraphs. We could use something like “foster the sense of safety..”
 1. Chair DeCrescenzo: We could cut the second sentence and make it one big paragraph
 2. Chair Atlas: There are multiple spaces throughout the document that should be fixed, and we could say “We take this opportunity to discuss these resources..”
- vi. Senator Tauro: I think we can place it in the last paragraph
- vii. Chair Atlas: I think at the bottom when you list the resources, the line about the chaplains should be put into the line with the interfaith center or we do dashes like a list or a dotted list
- c. Chair Anniballi moves to strike language “As representatives and advocates of the student body, SGA must work to ensure all members of our community feel safe and welcome on campus.”
 - i. Motion Seconded
 - ii. Motion Passed
- d. Chair Atlas moves to strike language “We encourage you to reach out to any of the Hofstra offices listed below:” and add “the following; to contact”
 - i. Motion Seconded
 - ii. Motion Passed
- e. Chair Atlas moves to include all chaplains in 1 line
 - i. Motion seconded
 - ii. Motion passed
- f. Chair Anniballi moves to pass Resolution (01) on Gun Violence
