Tuition and Fees

Hofstra University reserves the right to alter the policy and schedule of charges without prior notice. The privileges of the University are available to students only upon completion of registration and the payment of all tuition and fees. Students may not register for a new semester until all prior financial obligations have been satisfied and paid. The University shall withhold diplomas, certificates, and transcripts until all financial obligations have been met.

Tuition and fees are payable by check or money order submitted either by mail or in person at the Office of Student Accounts, in the Student Administrative Complex of Memorial Hall. Checks and money orders shall be drawn to the order of Hofstra University for all amounts due. In addition, for your convenience, payments may be made by credit card, MasterCard and Visa only, through the University website, by fax (516-463-4847), mail or in person. All payments shall be applied first to past-due balances, and then to current charges.

Listed below are the charges for the 2002-2003 which were in place at the time of this bulletin publication. Hofstra University reserves the right to alter this schedule and other fees without notice. The current tuition and fees rates will be available on the University’s website, www.hofstra.edu, prior to the start of each term.

Payment Policy
   Tuition and fees are due and payable in full at the time of registration. Students will be billed in July for the fall semester and in December for the spring semester. Students are responsible for all charges regardless of billing, and may access their student account through the Hofstra website. Students are required to notify the Office of Academic Records of any change in billing address, and/or update their billing address through the web. All payments must be made in accordance with prevailing University policy. Students should consult with the Schedule of Classes and the University website for current policy.

Deferred Payment Plan
   Students may defer up to 50% of total current term charges, less pending approved financial aid, to a maximum of $2,500 for undergraduate and graduate students. Any amounts deferred must be paid in full by October 15 for the fall, and March 15 for the spring. Students must complete a Deferred Payment Agreement, available through the Office of Student Accounts, or through the Hofstra Online Information System. The completed agreement, along with a nonrefundable fee of 2% of the amount deferred (a minimum fee of $50) and the balance due must be submitted to the Office of Student Accounts.

Monthly Payment Plan, administered by TuitionPay
   Students preferring to pay annual tuition and fees on a monthly basis may do so through a service provided by Hofstra University through an outside organization, currently TuitionPay. The plan provides for monthly installments for the academic year. Information is available by contacting the Office of Student Accounts. Students may also contact TuitionPay directly through their website www.tuitionpay.com.
Late Payment Fees
All tuition and fees are due at registration. Failure to make payments on time will result in the assessment of late penalties. Moreover, students with balances due will not be permitted to register, receive a transcript, or receive a diploma or certificate. Federal and state regulations, along with University policy, preclude the use of current financial aid for the payment of past due charges.

Fall Semester
- Payments after August 1: 50%
- Payments after October 15: 100%

Spring Semester
- Payments after January 5: 50%
- Payments after March 15: 100%

Late Registration Fees
(See current Schedule of Classes for specific registration dates)
Continuing students are expected to register during the scheduled registration periods, which are outlined in the Schedule of Classes and on the University’s website for each term. Students wishing to register after the appointed periods are subject to Late Registration Fees.

Withdrawal From the University
University Refund Policy
The University shall refund student payments, other than Title IV aid, in accordance with the following schedule. Please note that the University fee is non-refundable. Students must apply for all eligible refunds in writing. An application for refund is available from the Office of Student Accounts or on the University website. Students wishing to withdraw from the University must meet with an advisor in the Office of Academic Advisement, 101 Memorial Hall. All official withdrawals must be certified by the Office of Academic Advisement prior to the processing of refunds.

The refund policy associated with housing and meal plans is available from the Office of Residential Life.

Students are required to withdraw from classes in accordance with established policy. Students may not withdraw from classes or the University without official notification. Non-attendance from classes does not constitute withdrawal. Students remain fully responsible for all financial obligations, subject to the refund schedule above.

Note: Non-attendance of classes does not classify as official withdrawal, and does not relieve the student of his or her financial obligation, or entitle the student to a refund.

Title IV Refund Policy
Students who withdraw from the University and have received, or were eligible to receive, funds from the Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Loan (Unsubsidized, Subsidized and/or PLUS) Programs, are subject to federal regulations relating to the refund of Title IV aid, and to the University’s refund policy for all other payments. The amount of refundable institutional charges shall follow the University’s refund schedule detailed above.

Upon students withdrawal during a period of enrollment in which they have begun attendance and have received federal Title IV aid, the University is required to determine the amount of earned and unearned Title IV aid. A student is only eligible to retain the percentage of Title IV aid disbursed or could have been disbursed that is equal to the percentage of the enrollment period completed by the student. The unearned Title IV aid must be returned to the appropriate federal aid program(s). This federal formula considers the date of withdrawal, the form of aid, and the amount of aid credited to the student or previously refunded to the student. If the student has completed more than 60% of the enrollment period, no Title IV aid needs to be returned.

Unearned financial aid dollars, which must be returned to the federal aid programs, may create a balance owed by the student to the University. Students remain responsible for all such financial obligations.

In addition to the amount of federal aid that the University must return, students receiving federal aid directly from Hofstra or otherwise toward other educational costs, including off-campus living expenses, may be required to repay a portion of those funds to the federal programs. Failure to return the aid to the federal aid programs may result in loss of eligibility for additional financial aid assistance.

Federal aid funds to be returned are distributed to the programs in the following order:

- Unsubsidized Federal Stafford Loans
- Subsidized Federal Stafford Loans
- Federal Perkins Loans
- Federal PLUS Loans
- Federal Pell Grant
- Federal SEOG
- Other Title IV Programs

(Sample worksheets are available in the Financial Aid Office.)
