Enter the 2003 Long Island Entrepreneurial Spirit Awards and qualify your company to join the elite group of firms recognized annually for their corporate success.

Here’s Your Chance To Find Out...

What Companies Can Be Nominated?

The Entrepreneurial Spirit Awards honor the area’s “Top 50” and “25 Fastest-Growing” privately held companies. The awards program is open to all privately owned businesses headquartered in Nassau or Suffolk county that have been in operation for at least two years.

Feel free to nominate your own or another firm. Anonymous nominations are also accepted.

What Must You Do?

Simply complete this nomination form and return it by mail or fax to KPMG LLP. “Top 50” winners are based on total 2002 revenues, while “25 Fastest-Growing” honorees are recognized for their revenue growth between 2001 and 2002. Nomination forms should include name of CEO, a business description, and financial data to be considered.

What Will You Gain?

The chief executives of winning companies are honored at the Salute to Long Island’s Entrepreneurial Spirit awards luncheon, where more than 600 business leaders gather annually to applaud the success of their peers. Your firm will also join the ranks of an elite group of thriving businesses that have been recognized as vital engines in our regional economy since 1986. What’s more, your company will benefit from the high-profile media attention this program receives in the local business and news media.
