Invites you to attend our

Miscue Analysis Research Roundtable
June 29 & 30, 2006
9 a.m. – 4 p.m., 285 Hagedorn Hall

Alan Flurkey • Debra Goodman

At this 2 day conference, presenters will share research in progress and participants will be invited to discuss issues or problems related to ongoing research. Research studies involve: reading miscue analysis, retrospective miscue analysis, eye movement miscue analysis, reading interviews, reading strategies, and other applications of miscue analysis. Studies investigate aspects of the reading process, the nature of texts, the transaction between reader and text, reader’s development, readers beliefs and interests, and so on. All conference participants are welcome to bring data for discussion. If you would like to share a research study, please fill out the attached proposal form. For more information, contact Alan Flurkey (516) 463-5237 or email debra.goodman@hofstra.edu
