The Reading Miscue Analysis Conference brings educators together to explore miscue analysis as an approach to research, evaluation and teaching. This focused conference provides first hand workshops and invites conversations among participants.

Featuring: Yetta Goodman, Prisca Martens and Alan Flurkey authors of The Essential RMA: A Window into Readers’ Thinking.

Conference Highlights:
- Varied sessions and mini-courses from novice to experienced.
- First hand experiences with Reading Miscue Inventory for evaluation.
- Retrospective Miscue Analysis (RMA) invites readers to discuss their own reading process and strategies.
- Literacy support strategies for readers who are struggling.
