- Above includes Professional Development Certificate for PD Credit
- Current Hofstra student: $10, plus $10 for Teacher packet = $20

For Teachers of Grade K-5 students

Creative movement offers an opportunity to reach kinesthetic learners who need to move to process information. In this workshop, teachers discover how creative movement can enhance student learning about habitats weather/climate, animal and plant life, and the concept of interdependence. Teachers explore physical warm-ups that build on descriptive language related to the habitat and learn a simple structure for composing movement sequences that help students learn.

Biography: Kimberli Boyd is a nationally known dancer, performing arts and artist educator. As a performing artist, Kimberli has toured extensively, performing and presenting workshops and residences for many major presenters both nationally and internationally. She is a Kennedy Center artist whose improvisational and performance techniques along with the study of classical ballet, inform her eclectic movement style. She has studied with many notable artists, including Peggy Lymon, Antony Morgan, Clifford Schulman, Ken Genado, Linda Davis, Dorothy Vislocky, Woody McGriff, David Dorfman, and Dr. Pearl Primus learning multiple dance techniques.

DIRECTIONS TO AXINN LIBRARY

BY CAR:

From the Long Island Expressway (exit 38, which puts you on to the Northern State), or from the Northern State Parkway, take the Meadowbrook Parkway South, exit 31A on the right. It is well marked. Exit the Meadowbrook Parkway at M4. Stay on the long exit ramp (do not exit at the first right), and it will take you on to Hempstead Turnpike going west (Route 24). Stay on Hempstead Turnpike W for about one mile ... Pass Nassau Coliseum ... Hofstra University is on both sides of Hempstead Turnpike ... You will see three overhead walkways ... Turn right into Hofstra before the second overhead walkway... Drive straight ahead and use the general parking lots to the left or right.

After parking, enter the Student Center, the tall building to the right as you face Hempstead Turnpike. * Enter the building and walk straight ahead over the unispan walkway. Upon reaching the other side, enter the library on your right and immediately turn left when you enter the library to access the elevators to the 2nd floor. Upon exiting the elevator, turn right and room 246 is on the right.

If you are coming from the south, you can take the Southern State Parkway to the Meadowbrook Parkway North (Exit 22N) ... Stay on the Meadowbrook Parkway until Exit M4 (sign reads "Hempstead" and "Coliseum") ... Then follow directions above.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION:

From New York City: The Long Island Rail Road provides regular commuter service from Pennsylvania Station in New York City to the Hempstead station, which is less than two miles from Hofstra's campus ... Pennsylvania Station is located at 34th Street and 8th Avenue, below Madison Square Garden. Take the Long Island Rail Road East on the Hempstead Branch to the final stop "Hempstead." Depending on the day and time, a complimentary blue Hofstra bus may be waiting at the station to take visitors and students to the Hofstra campus. The bus makes several stops on campus. Otherwise, just take a taxi for a short 5-minute trip to the south Hofstra campus. Get off at the second over-pass, cross Hempstead Turnpike, and enter the Student Center. Follow the directions above beginning at the *.
