FRIDAY, MAY 15
1 p.m.    College Bound
Berenice Hall, South Campus
Do you have a teenager planning for college? Start the process early and learn the facts during this informative discussion. Admission staff members will conduct an overview of all Hofstra’s resources.
1-5 p.m.    Career Counseling
The Career Center, M. Robert Lowe Hall, South Campus
The Career Center is open 9 a.m.-5 p.m.
If you are comfortably attending both the appointment, please call The Career Center at (516) 463-6050 to schedule an appointment. The staff is and fee, register for the Professional Program 1 to 5 p.m. in Alumnae House Finally, please sign up to the Career Center’s Web site, HofstraCAREer, and one can be one open career opportunities for students, who have an average GPA of 3.0, have a encourage them to organize the best CHK on the Hofstra portal.
1-5 p.m.    Hospitality Room
Libby and Joseph G. Shapiro Alumni House, South Campus
Bella with light refreshments while reuniting with old friends.
6 p.m.    Reception Honoring History Professor Michael D’Innocenzo
Hofstra University OML, David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus
Join the Hofstra community in a reception honoring Professor D’Innocenzo, Hofstra’s Henry M. and Elizabeth W. Kissell Chair in the Study of History—Social Change. The American Historical Association has named Professor D’Innocenzo one of the recipients of the 2011 John Hope Franklin Distinguished Teaching Award. This award also supports the Society for History Education, recognizes teaching teachers whose techniques and mastery of subject matter have made a difference to students of history and history educators for additional information.
8 p.m.    Hofstra Cultural Center Presents
The Bronx Opera Company’s The Magic Flute by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
John Crabbed Adams Playhouse, South Campus
Fully staged production, sung in English. Signal Hill Academy student orchestra, ALL STS 03181, SUNY.
For tickets and information please call the John Crabbed Adams Playhouse Box Office at (516) 463-6444. Adults: $11. Students: $5. Previews 3/5 p.m.
SATURDAY, MAY 16
9:30 a.m.    Continental Breakfast
The Warburton at Hofstra University
10:30 a.m.    Academic Panel Discussions
Jeannine and Donald F. Aaron Alumni Center
Celebrating the value of lifelong learning and the exemplary experience found at Hofstra. These panels offer a “what is new” experience and showcase the exciting work of our faculty and alumni.
Panel 1: The Obama Presidency: The First 100 Days
2:15 p.m. East Library Lobby
The first 100 days of an administration have become a benchmark for evaluating the success of a new president. Join us in a discussion to evaluate the first 100 days of the Obama Administration.
Presenter: David M. Israeli, Professor of History
Sedayi, Director, Peter S. Kalikow Center for the Study of the American Presidency
Moderators: Michael E. Davis, Associate Professor of Political Science
Richard Kiesslaff, Associate Professor of Political Science
Panel 2: 1969: A Revolutionary Year
2:45 p.m. East Library Lobby
1969 was a year of revolution—landing the legendary concert “Woodstock,” the release of Abbey Road, the Beatles lasted another through the tornadoes of New York City. The Mets’ 1969 World Series triumph was a triumph of Melody and a young, vibrant sportswriter, a triumph of Houston, guaranteed a job victory in the Super Bowl. Join us as we discuss these and other events in 1969.
Moderators: David M. Israeli, Professor of History and Chair, Department of Political Science and Environment
Harold J. Lustig, Assistant Professor of Political Science and Environment
Panel 3: 1981: A Year of Significance
9:30 a.m. Alumni Family Barbecue
Libby and Joseph G. Shapiro Alumni House, South Campus
Please visit hofstra.edu/alumni for complete profiles of the panels.
9:30 a.m.    Noon 2009 NCAA Men’s Lacrosse Quarterfinals
Hosted by Hofstra University
Hofstra University Stadium, Lynfield, New York
Game 1 at noon and Game 2 at 3 p.m.
For tickets and additional information call (516) 463-6274.
12:30 p.m.    Alumni Family Barbecue
Libby and Joseph G. Shapiro Alumni House, South Campus
Join friends and fellow alumni at a special reception to celebrate the Class of 1959 in the historic Hofstra University Alumni House.
2 p.m.    Campus Walking Tour
Meet at the Alumni House
This introduction to Hofstra will take place on the work of Persis (1905–1988), one of the few women artists in the river city of tribal Expressions. For more information, please call (516) 463-5972.