APPLICATION FOR STUDENT GUIDES

The Program Committee for the George W. Bush Conference is soliciting student volunteers to act as guides for invited participants of the conference. Students will escort conference participants to their scheduled events and perform other similar duties, providing student guides with a potentially unique opportunity to interact with policymakers and distinguished scholars during the conference. For more information on the conference, see www.hofstra.edu/gwb.

To apply to be a student guide, please send the following information to Paul Fritz (Associate Professor of Political Science) at paul.fritz@hofstra.edu by March 1, 2015:

- Name:
- Email:
- Cell Phone:
- Class Standing:
- Major(s)/Minor(s):
- GPA:
- Area(s) of Interests (e.g., foreign policy, domestic policy, economic policy, environmental policy):
- Availability on:
  - 24 March 2015
  - 25 March 2015
  - 26 March 2015

All applications must be received by 1 March 2015. Incomplete application will not be considered. Only students chosen to be guides will be contacted.

Those students selected to be a student guide will have to attend an orientation meeting before the conference (day/time to be announced).

If you have any questions, please email Professor Fritz (paul.fritz@hofstra.edu).
