Dear Subscriber,

Not sure which library database to use for your research?

Doing interdisciplinary work and want to see research out of your discipline?

Then start with OneSearch. Released in mid-January 2013, OneSearch searches nearly all the library databases at the same time, including the library online catalog. OneSearch returns lots of hits. A whole lot of hits! Fortunately, a sophisticated algorithm brings the best hits to the first screen. Sorting through these hits is easy using the limiters on the left side of the screen. You are never more than a few clicks away from targeted search results from multiple sources.

An introductory tutorial on OneSearch is available here:
http://liblearn.hofstra.edu/guide_on_the_side/tutorial/onesearch

A library Subject Research Guide on OneSearch and can be found here:
http://libguides.hofstra.edu/onesearch

Extensive help from the vendor, Ebsco, is available here:

Try it right now from the Library's homepage at:
http://www.hofstra.edu/library

Howard E. Graves
Senior Assistant Dean - Hofstra University Library

Have questions? Need help with your research? The Axinn Library Reference Desk is the place to start. Contact a Reference Librarian at 516.463.5962 or via LibAnswers.