

“P” Personal and Social Responsibility Monday, February 27, 2012

Do You Know What Your Hofstra ID Can Do?

Mack Student Center, Room 221

9 a.m.

Being Personally and Socially Responsible means being prepared and informed. Hofstra community members should always carry their Hofstra ID. Come have breakfast and learn how important your ID really is. This initiative is presented by the Office of Off-Campus Living and Commuting Student Services as well as Hofstra Card Services.

Do You Know What Your Hofstra ID Can Do?

Mack Student Center Atrium

11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Stop by for a fun photo shoot. Take a picture with a giant Hofstra ID card. Come and ask questions to learn about the importance of your ID. Show how responsible you are, stop by, learn, and receive a prize! This event is presented by the offices of Off-Campus Living and Commuting Student Services and Hofstra Card Services.

Whatever You Do, Do It with Pride

240 Mack Student Center, Office of Community Standards

10 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Are you personally and socially responsible? Take part in our Personal and Social Responsibility challenge and come to the Office of Community Standards to receive ethical question lollypops. Stop by to test how responsible you are.

“R” Respect for Self and Others Tuesday, February 28, 2012

Represent Your Respect Through “a – R – t”

Mack Student Center Atrium

11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

The Center for University Advisement, Services for Students with Disabilities, Residential Programs, and the Off-Campus Living and Commuting Student Services office challenge you to express yourself. Draw, write a poem, make a collage, or use arts and crafts to represent what Respect means to you and you may win a pizza party for your residence hall floor or a group of your fellow commuting students. Large poster boards and contest rules will be available in each Residence Hall and the office of Off-Campus Living and Commuting Student Services (SC 221) from February 20 – 24. The artwork will be displayed in the lounge areas of each residence hall and in the Commuting Students Lounge to be viewed by the public. The winning Residence Halls and Commuter Students will be announced February 28 during common hour in the Student Center Atrium, where their work will be displayed.

Street Fight Documentary Screening

Mack Student Center Theater

6:30 p.m.

Prior to the keynote from Cory Booker tomorrow at 11:15 a.m., come see the Oscar-nominated documentary that chronicles the contentious 2002 mayoral race in Newark, NJ, which pitted Cory Booker against incumbent Sharpe James. Professor Rosanna Perotti will present an introduction to the movie and set the context for the election.

"I" Integrity, Ethics and Leadership

Wednesday, February 29, 2012

P.R.I.D.E. Week Keynote and Debate 2012 Kickoff Event Cory Booker, Mayor of Newark, New Jersey "How to Change the World With Your Bare Hands" Monroe Theater 11:15-12:45 Student Affairs, Parent Council, and University Relations are honored to present Cory Booker as the P.R.I.D.E. Week keynote speaker. The P.R.I.D.E. Principles, including personal and social responsibility; integrity, ethics and leadership; and diversity and community, are mirrored in the messages that Mayor Booker promotes in his work. He will discuss the need for everyone to take responsibility to help this nation live up to its promise. Drawing from a deep belief in service and social justice, Mayor Booker will inspire you to greater civic responsibility and issue a call to action for you and America.

**You must RSVP at hofstra.edu/CoryBooker to attend this event.****

"What Would You Do?" Putt-Putt Golf

Student Center Atrium

Common Hour, 11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Show off your putt-putt skills while answering ethical "What Would You Do?" questions! Students who answer the question appropriately and are able to make the shot in 3 or less strokes will win a prize! For more information please contact OSLA. Sponsored by the Office of Student Leadership and Activities.

P.R.I.D.E. A-La-Carte Leadership Workshop

Mack Student Center, Plaza Room West

5 p.m.

Come further develop your leadership skills! This Integrity, Leadership, and Ethics workshop will be led by Dr. Kathleen Wallace of the Philosophy Department. This workshop is open to everyone and is a part of the larger P.R.I.D.E. A-La-Carte Leadership Workshop program. For more information about the workshop or the program please contact OSLA. Sponsored by OSLA.

Movie Screening: "What Does It Mean to be Human?"

Mack Student Center Theater

7 p.m.

The Catholic Life Office and the Newman Club will present a powerful documentary about two brothers who go out in search of answering the question "What Does It Mean to be Human?" You can view the trailer here:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ctyX5ltSQEI>. Take part in our Human Experience Screening, ask questions and share your opinion. We will be offering opportunities to donate and/ or take part in serving a good cause. Come and sign up for the Manhattan Street Team or the Midnight Run scheduled for Sunday, March 4. Get involved. Take your pledge to make a difference and express your integrity, ethics, and leadership skills.

"D" Diversity and Community Thursday, March 1, 2012

"Represent Your State or Country" – Map Activity

Mack Student Center Atrium

11 a.m. – 1p.m.

Residential Programs will present a large map of the United States and of the world. Place a star sticker on the map to represent where you are from. Come out to be represented and see the geographic diversity of the Hofstra community!

"Music of Many Cultures"

Netherlands Cafeteria

7 – 9 p.m.

Music shows our diversity and it builds community. Come out and relax with coffee and cookies while listening to a wide variety of music. Residential Programs, in collaboration with the Center for University Advisement, Services for Students with Disabilities, and Off-Campus Living and Commuting Student Services, will present different music genres such as Latin, jazz, blues, gospel, rap and opera music to show the diversity of our Hofstra community. Learn about the roots and impacts of different genres of music. Get involved, share your thoughts and be an active part in our Hofstra community.

P.R.I.D.E. Basketball Shootout

Fitness Center

8 – 9 p.m.

The Office of Recreation and Intramural Sports presents the P.R.I.D.E. Shootout. Sports brings people together to build a community. Come out and shoot some hoops from 5 different spots on the court, each designating one of the five P.R.I.D.E. Principles, to remind yourself about what's important to our community. Make a difference, and show us what community is about. Each participant will receive a gift just for playing, and the winner of the P.R.I.D.E. Shootout will be given a Grand Prize!

“E” Expression and Free Exchange

Friday, March 2, 2012

Be Smart as You “Express” Yourself When Using Social Media

Mack Student Center Atrium

11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Think that your friends are the only ones looking at your Facebook profile? Think again! Employers are using Facebook and other social media sites through the recruitment process now more than ever before. Come learn from the Career Center about how to be smart when you “Express” yourself when using social media, before and during your job and internship search.

Friday Night Karaoke Presents: Open Mic Night

Hof USA, Upper Level

7 – 9 p.m.

Whether it’s poetry, narratives, singing or spoken words you can get up to the mic and express your thoughts with the crowd at Hof USA. We hope you join us for a night of expression, fun and food. For more information please contact

OSLA. Sponsored by OSLA.