Re: New Procedure for the Collection of the $400 Nonrefundable Deposit

All students who are interested in applying to an HCLAS study abroad program are requested to note the following change regarding the collection of the $400 nonrefundable deposit:

The last sheet of your study abroad application is a form that has all account numbers for our programs. Please bring this sheet (with the highlighted account number for your program) to any teller in Student Accounts (Memorial Hall, second floor), along with your $400 check. You will receive two (2) receipts once you have paid your $400 nonrefundable deposit. Please keep one receipt for your files and return one receipt to the Office of Study Abroad Programs along with your completed application, and necessary forms.

Please note: Student Accounts will not accept your $400 deposit if you have any outstanding bills that need to be paid. You will need to take care of these bills first before you can pay the study abroad program nonrefundable deposit.

If you have any questions regarding this procedure, please feel free to stop by our office (107 Roosevelt Hall), or call me at (516) 463 4765.
