Venice Program

Students, please note:

• In order to apply to this program you must be in good academic standing (2.0 minimum GPA) and good judicial standing.

• Study Abroad Pre-Departure Orientation Session. Saturday, December 7, 2019, 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM., followed by lunch. Students are requested to go to the Plaza Rooms, Student Center, for registration 9:00-10:00 AM. Please be on time. This session is mandatory for all students participating in the January 2020 Venice Program.
Please make sure you hand in the following with your completed application:

1. $500 non-refundable deposit receipt.
   Please go to Student Accounts with your $500 check, payable to Hofstra University and the study abroad account number sheet which you will find in your application (last page). Once you have paid, you will receive 2 receipts. Please keep one receipt for your files and return one receipt to the Office of Study Abroad Programs for HCLAS, along with the completed application and necessary forms that you have downloaded. You will be able to see the $500 deposit paid on your account.

2. Completed necessary forms, which include: medical information, medical emergency authorization, acknowledgment of risks and release and publicity.
   Instructions to download these forms are in this application.

Please bring the above to the Office of Study Abroad Programs, 107 Roosevelt Hall. The Office will not accept incomplete applications.
Application deadline: Thursday, October 10, 2019

To the Student: Please return completed application, all necessary forms and $500 deposit receipt to the Office of Study Abroad Programs, 107 Roosevelt Hall, by October 10, 2019.

I hereby make application for admission to the Venice Program of Hofstra University. I understand that, if admitted, I will be asked (1) to accept the supervision and authority of officials of Hofstra University, including the Director of the Program while abroad, (2) to conduct myself as a responsible representative of my country and college, and (3) I agree to conform to all government regulations and laws pertinent to my stay abroad.

PROGRAM CANCELLATION POLICY

To the student: Please read carefully and sign.

Students who are participating in the January 2020 Venice Program may cancel without penalty on or before November 8, 2019. * Any student who cancels after November 8, 2019, will be responsible for full payment of the round-trip airline ticket and other program-related expenses. Students will be charged for these expenses by Hofstra University.

* This excludes the $500 deposit which is nonrefundable.

I have read the above statement and I am aware that I will be responsible for full payment of the round-trip airline ticket and other program-related expenses should I have to cancel after November 8, 2019.

Re: Necessary forms

As a participant in the Hofstra in Venice Program, you are asked to complete necessary forms which include: (1) medical information form, (2) acknowledgment of risks and release, (3) publicity release and, (4) emergency medical care authorization.

All forms can be downloaded. Please visit hofstra.edu/studyabroad and click on "Necessary Forms" under the “Useful Resources” tab. Download all four forms (which include: Medical Emergency Authorization, Medical Information, Publicity Release, and Risks Release), complete and return to our office (107 Roosevelt Hall) along with your completed application and $500 nonrefundable deposit receipt. We will not accept incomplete applications.

Please Note: In addition to handing in the four (4) necessary forms, all study abroad participants are now required to make an appointment with Hofstra’s Wellness Center for a travel consult at least six (6) weeks prior to the program’s departure. After the consultation, the Wellness Center will issue you a compliance form. Please bring the completed form to the Office of Study Abroad Programs, 107 Roosevelt Hall, by November 18, 2018.
If you have any questions, or need further clarification, please don’t hesitate to call me at 516 463 4765 or stop by the Office of Study Abroad Programs, located in 107 Roosevelt Hall.

Re: New Procedure for the Collection of the $500 Nonrefundable Deposit

All students who are interested in applying to the Venice Program are requested to note the following regarding the collection of the $500 nonrefundable deposit:

The last sheet of your study abroad application is a form that has all account numbers for our programs. Please bring this sheet (with the bold account number for the Venice Program) to any teller in Student Accounts (Memorial Hall, second floor), along with your $500 check. Payable to Hofstra University. You will receive two (2) receipts once you have paid your $500 non-refundable deposit. Please keep one receipt for your files and return one receipt to the Office of Study Abroad Programs along with your completed application, and necessary forms.

Please note: Student Accounts will not accept your $500 deposit if you have any outstanding bills that need to be paid. You will need to take care of these bills first before you can pay the study abroad program nonrefundable deposit.
