Diversity Grant Abstract

West Indians on Long Island

A Provost diversity grant enabled the applicant to pursue ethnographic reach concerning the West Indian community in Nassau and Suffolk counties. By West Indian the director is referring to ethnic groups from non-Hispanic island and mainland societies in the Caribbean. While there are surveys of West Indians in various cited. There are few concerning Long Island and the project build upon and expands previous research conducted by the director in Jamaica, Trinidad, and elsewhere by focusing on Long Island.