Jeff Johnson is an award-winning journalist, social activist and political commentator. He is the reporter on Tom Joyner's Morning Show, handling issues on politics, entertainment and social policy. Johnson spent the last 10 years merging the worlds of politics and popular culture. He has worked as Senior Advisor for Media and Youth Outreach for People for the American Way, National Director of the Youth & College division of the NAACP, and an appointment by Russell Simmons as the Vice President of the Hip Hop Summit Action Network (HSAN). He won a 2008 NABJ Salute to Excellence Award for BET's "Life & Death in Darfur, Jeff Johnson Reports" series.
