WOMEN'S Herstory MONTH

education and empowerment

March 2012

A Woman Like That

Thursday, March 1, 2012
5-7 p.m.

The Helene Fortunoff Theater, Monroe Lecture Center, California Avenue, South Campus
A Woman Like That is a free-wheeling tribute to Artemisia Gentileschi, an artist whose own bold life and inspiring message leaps across centuries to speak to us all. The enduring power of storytelling — in paintings, in films and in our lives — is revealed, as the filmmaker learns that who gets to tell the story matters, and that maybe she too, can be "a woman like that."

For more information, please contact Martha Hollander at 516-463-5058.
Sponsored by The Department of Fine Arts and Art History and the Hofstra Cultural Center.

Have You Heard From Johannesburg?: Fair Play

Thursday, March 1, 2012
7-9:30 p.m.

211 Breslin Hall – The Screening Room, South Campus
Fair Play tells the dramatic story of the athletes and activists around the world who refused to play with apartheid, pushing South Africa's teams out of international sports competitions. Featuring a Q & A with producer/director Connie Field.

For more information, please contact Christian Mpooy at cmpooy1@pride.hofstra.edu.
Sponsored by Hofstra African Students Association; Collegiate Women of Color; Center for Civic Engagement; and the Radio, Television, Film Department's M.F.A. Program in Documentary Studies and Production.

GAYDAR: Guess the Straight Woman

Wednesday, March 7, 2012
8-10 p.m.

Student Center Theater, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus
This game-show style program is fun and engaging. There are five panelists: four lesbian, one straight. It's the audience's job to figure out which one is heterosexual. Through the process of guessing, stereotypes are broken down and audience members see there is a lot more to a person than their sexual orientation.
For more information, please contact Hofstra@ThePrideNetwork.org or 516-463-6047.
Sponsored by The Pride Network.

Water – Hofstra SASA Movie and Discussion

Thursday, March 8, 2012
7-9:30 p.m.

Student Center Theater, Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus
Water strongly portrays the struggles and treatment of widowed women in India during the time of British rule. Following the movie will be an open discussion between Hofstra faculty and students regarding treatment of women in India, and all around the world.

The Wild Women of Song – Great Gal Composers of the Jazz Era

Saturday, March 24, 2012
8-10 p.m.

The Helene Fortunoff Theater, Monroe Lecture Center, California Avenue, South Campus
The Wild Quintet and jazz and blues vocalist Pamela Rose make a compelling case for the enduring contributions of women to America's treasure trove of popular music, from Alberta Hunter to Peggy Lee, in this multi-media showpiece that shines a light on the forgotten contributions of the prolific, feisty and talented women of Tin Pan Alley (1920-1950).
For tickets and more information please contact the John Cranford Adams Playhouse Box Office at 516-463-6444.
Sponsored by Hofstra Entertainment.
