Hofstra Exchange Students Program in China

- Great opportunity to explore Chinese geography, history, language, culture, and society in the world’s largest and fastest growing economy
- Experience the diverse and exciting student life at an elite Chinese university in Xi’an for a semester
- Credits earned at Xi’an Jiaotong University (XJTU) are transferable to Hofstra

XJTU is offering three prestigious scholarships to cover the accommodation costs for Hofstra students.

About XJTU (http://www.xjtu.edu.cn/en/)

Founded in 1896, XJTU is regarded as one of China’s nine “Ivy League” universities and ranked among the best universities worldwide. It is the country’s oldest institution of higher learning, with about 30,000 full-time students and 1,020 international students from over 70 countries. XJTU has extensive ties to the world of international scholarship and research that include fourteen Nobel laureates and over 200 foreign guest lecturers.

About Xi’an

XJTU is located at the ancient Chinese capital city of Xi’an. Regarded as the cradle of Chinese civilization, the city has the longest history and the most influence on Chinese culture. Xi’an was built 3,100 years ago and had been the capital for 1,200 years spanning 13 dynasties. It is also the starting point of the ancient Silk Road and home to the Terra-cotta Warriors and Horses, one of the eighth wonders of the ancient world.
