

Hofstra University Latin American and Caribbean Studies Program

presents a panel discussion

11:15 a.m.-12:40 p.m. (Common Hour), Wednesday, November 13,

Leo A. Guthart Cultural Center Theater, Axinn Library, First Floor, South Campus

The Challenges of Emancipation in the Atlantic World

Participants:

Benjamin Talton, Temple University

Defending the Political Kingdom: Capitalism, Humanitarianism and the Limits of African Sovereignty in the 20th Century

Enrique Martino, Humboldt University of Berlin

*Enduring Atlantic Economies in the 20th Century:
Nigerian Indentured Labour on the Plantation Island of Fernando Po*

Christopher Schmidt-Nowara, Tufts University

Defending Slavery in an Age of Emancipation: Spain, Cuba, and Puerto Rico in the Early Nineteenth Century

Contact: Benita Sampedro at benita.sampedro@hofstra.edu

