

“Hispanic New York and the Latinization of the United States”

a presentation by Claudio Iván Remeseira (Columbia University), author of Hispanic New York: A Sourcebook (Columbia U. Press, 2010), and the recipient of the 2011 International Latino Book Award

Wednesday, September 18, 2013

4:30-5:55p.m.

Breslin 103

Claudio Iván Remeseira is a New York-based award-winning journalist, writer and cultural critic born in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Author of Hispanic New York: A Sourcebook (Columbia UP, 2010), he is the founder and director of the digital project Hispanic New York <http://www.hispanicny.com/>, hosted by the American Studies Program at Columbia University.

He is also a member of the Advisory Board of the Library & Archives of El Centro de Estudios Puertorriqueños at Hunter College, and Curator of the Hispanic New York Film Festival, co-sponsored by Columbia University and the Instituto Cervantes, in collaboration with The Film Society of Lincoln Center. His literary and journalistic work has appeared in Review: Literature and Arts of the Americas, Salmagundi, Primera Revista Latinoamericana de Libros, Diario Rumbo, Hora Hispana, El Nuevo Día, El País, La Nación, Página/12, and Lilith magazine, among other publications.

This event has been co-sponsored by the Latin American and Caribbean Studies Program and the Center for Civic Engagement. We acknowledge the support of the National Center for Suburban Studies at Hofstra University. For further details please contact Benita.sampedro@hofstra.edu or Brenda.Elsey@hofstra.edu

