March 2003

Dear Fellow Graduate:

Participation, n. 1. A sharing, as in benefits (Webster’s College Dictionary, 1991).

Each year it becomes more imperative for alumni to support the Annual Fund and make a tangible difference in the quality of the Hofstra educational experience. Hofstra is fortunate to have alumni who make the choice each year to participate and make an investment in the lives of current students. However, increased alumni participation remains our goal.

Our collective contributions represent a vital source of private support that enables Hofstra to provide a superior education in state-of-the-art facilities. We encourage you to join us in contributing to the 2002/2003 Annual Fund. You can put your investment to work immediately by visiting www.hofstra.edu/gifts to make your gift today.

Remember, a gift that is significant to you is significant to Hofstra. By including your contribution, we will be able to report a greater level of alumni participation for 2002/2003. Your gift, regardless of the amount, reflects your commitment to Hofstra, and your desire to be a part of the future of our alma mater.

Sincerely,

Carol Cooper ’96, ’97
Co-Chair

William Agresti ’78
Co-Chair
