Giving Doesn't Have to Be Done All at Once ...

Did you know that you can spread out your annual contribution to Hofstra over a series of monthly payments?

We are happy to help set up a payment plan that will make giving easier and still create a significant impact at Hofstra.

We appreciate your generosity and will do all we can to assist you in feeling at ease with the amount you give each year.

For more information about a payment plan, or planned gift (trusts, bequests, annuities) to Hofstra University, please contact Gabrielle McCartin in the Office for Development at 516-463-5116 or Gabrielle.A.McCartin@hofstra.edu.

A Letter from President Stuart Rabinowitz

The spirit of civic engagement that defines our university emerged as one of our greatest strengths. We celebrated the honor of hosting a second consecutive presidential debate on October 16, 2012, and just weeks later we came together to help each other and the greater Long Island community respond and rebuild after Superstorm Sandy.

With commitment and creativity, our students, staff, faculty and alumni made history this year in so many ways. Our new and expanded programs in the sciences are thriving, as we answer the demand for more health professionals and a highly skilled, high-tech workforce. Our students are winning major journalism, business and entrepreneurship awards. And the work of our faculty is being recognized by the White House, which invited Gregory Maney, professor and chair of Hofstra's Sociology Department, to sit on a federal panel investigating human trafficking, and the Museum of Modern Art, which acquired for its permanent collection a poster designed by Tom Klinkowstein, Hofstra professor of design and new media.

The Hofstra North Shore-LIJ School of Medicine continues to transform the way doctors are trained, and recently broke ground on a facilities expansion that will double its size by 2015. Meanwhile, the Medical Scholars Pipeline program, which targets promising high school students in underserved communities who aspire to careers in medicine and health sciences, proudly witnessed the graduation of its first group of 20 students this year. Those students are heading to colleges such as Johns Hopkins University, Vanderbilt University, Spelman College and, yes, Hofstra.

The School of Health Sciences and Human Services, launched in fall 2012, sponsored an enormously successful three-day series of events to mark National Public Health Week, including several events conceived and run by students from Hofstra's new Master of Public Health program. The School of Engineering and Applied Science wrapped up its first year with a $75,000 student entrepreneurship competition sponsored by Hofstra alumnus Mike Seiman, who founded CPX Interactive while he was still a student. Two teams of students won seed money for their projects, and plans for an even larger competition next year are already underway.

Students from the Frank G. Zarb School of Business, meanwhile, took top honors in regional and statewide

“Every year when I compose this letter, I find myself inspired by all that we have accomplished, and so proud to be a part of the Hofstra community. I have never felt that more strongly than this year.”

competitions for innovative business ideas, creating apps that are now in the process of being brought to market. The first class of students in our new online MBA program – ranked among the top 100 in the nation by U.S. News & World Report – graduated in May.

By far, the highlight of the year was the privilege of hosting the town hall-style U.S. presidential debate, becoming one of only two universities to host consecutive presidential debates. Our goal was simple: to do more and to involve and inspire more of our campus and community to participate than did in 2008. Our students attended the National Conventions, some on fellowships from The Washington Center, others as reporters covering the story for our award-winning student-run radio station, WRHU-88.7 FM. More than 300 students were debate volunteers, and more than 400 got the chance to be in the debate audience.

A reprise of Democracy in Performance, a series of historical re-enactments by students, faculty and professional performers, first launched for the 2008 debate, drew hundreds of middle and high school students to campus. And more than a dozen alumni returned to campus as media professionals covering the 2012 debate, some crediting their success to their experience as student journalists during the 2008 debate.

Eric Lane, an exceptional faculty member for more than 35 years, became the ninth dean of the Maurice A. Deane School of Law in January 2013, after a distinguished career as a scholar and public servant. Under his leadership, the Law School is meeting the needs and challenges of the legal industry with a new emphasis on experiential learning and emerging specialties, such as the launch of the Gitenstein Institute for Health Law and Policy. The institute, funded by the Kermit Gitenstein Foundation and in partnership with Nassau University Medical Center, will train students for this increasingly complex, diverse domain.

The Law School also created a pro bono Disaster Recovery Clinic to help victims of Superstorm Sandy. This clinic is providing a critical service to the community while giving second- and third-year students invaluable hands-on experience. While the Hofstra campus made it through the storm with minimal loss, our community mobilized quickly to help neighbors, friends and colleagues, as well as residents in neighboring towns and cities hit hard by the storm. There were supply, food and blood drives, and more than 200 students went out into the community immediately after the storm to assist with the cleanup effort and deliver care packages to elderly residents. The School of Education coordinated a book collection to help restock K-12 schools with damaged libraries. Clinics at the Joan and Arnold Saltzman Community Services Center are offering free counseling to families suffering from emotional trauma. Zarb School of Business students worked the phones with Nassau County's Economic Recovery Task Force, reaching out to businesses in flood zones to inform them about aid and loan programs.

To help Hofstra students, faculty and staff with the financial repercussions of the storm, the University created a Community Disaster Relief Fund. The University announced it would match the raised funds, up to $50,000. In the end, more than $61,000 was raised. Hofstra also marshaled its scholarly resources to help in recovery and prevention efforts. To that end, the National Center for Suburban Studies at Hofstra University hosted a conference focused on sustainability and post-Sandy recovery that was attended by international experts. The conference was led by NCSS Executive Dean Larry Levy, Academic Director Dr. Chris Niedt and Dr. Robert Brinkmann, director of our Sustainability Studies program, and resulted in the creation of a hurricane research team that is seeking funding to support research on issues associated with natural hazards that impact our region.

In some cases, this work was both scholarly and intensely personal. Dr. Mary Anne Trasciatti, Hofstra professor of rhetoric and a resident of Long Beach, is working with a Hofstra graduate film student to create an oral history of the storm. They are interviewing residents, city workers and first responders about their experiences, and once the oral history is complete, it will become part of the University's historical archives.

This year, the true character of the Hofstra community was revealed in the way we responded to the tests and the triumphs. We met both the same way, with pride and purpose.

Preparing our students for successful careers is a central part of our mission. But it is not the only thing we must do. We must also prepare our students to be compassionate leaders who are engaged in the world and committed to using their sophisticated skills to solve national and global problems. Integrating these two goals is the mark of a great university. I am honored to lead Hofstra University. With your help, we will reach new heights in the years to come.

We would like to thank those generous supporters of Hofstra University whose gifts of $10,000 or more continue to shape our institution and inspire our community. For almost 80 years, Hofstra University has been fulfilling the academic and professional needs of its student body, faculty, and staff, and we continue this legacy every day.

Your contribution truly supports the success of our students and academic community.

Student Testimonials

"With your help, I am able to continue the pursuit of my academic aspirations. This University is filled with opportunity. I can't thank you enough for giving me the opportunity to pursue my education to its fullest extent."

– Senior, Connecticut

"This scholarship has given me the opportunity to be part of the Hofstra community and discover a new potential in myself. I want to thank you for putting your faith in me and my generation. After seeing how your generosity has opened many doors for me, I am inspired to do the same for others."

– First Year, New York

"I would not have been able to attend Hofstra University and pursue my dreams without the scholarship that you provided. Your generosity has made a tremendous impact on my life."

– Senior, New York

"It is due to your generosity that I am able to continue attending Hofstra University, and I certainly don't take it for granted. Thank you very much for all of your help."

– Junior, New Hampshire

Your investment in a scholarship will make a lasting difference in the life of a young person and ensure that the best and brightest students who wish to attend Hofstra are not left behind because of economic constraints. For the scholarship recipient, the honor of being recognized for one's academic achievement, coupled with the financial support to make a quality education possible, is a gift that lasts a lifetime.

"You have lightened my financial burden, which allows me to focus more on the most important aspect of school, learning. Your generosity has inspired me to help others and give back to the community. I hope one day I will be able to help students achieve their goals just as you have helped me."

– Senior, New Jersey

As a scholarship donor, you would receive the following benefits:

- The satisfaction of helping deserving students pursue their educational goals
- Recognition of your philanthropy and commitment to Hofstra in the President's Annual Report
- Notification about your scholarship recipient
- An invitation to the annual Scholarship Luncheon and the opportunity to meet your scholarship recipient and other talented Hofstra students
- Invitations to select University events
- Tax benefits to the full extent provided by law

For information about establishing a scholarship at Hofstra, please contact Margaret Shields at 516-463-6561 or margaret.shields@hofstra.edu.

Hofstra Parents Annual Fund Committee

In addition to annual gifts, you can support your Hofstra student's experience and enhance your own by taking an active role in the University. Activities include contacting parents of newly accepted or admitted students and being an ambassador for the University; providing internships, summer or full-time employment; and sharing career advice.

We give back to Hofstra as a way of showing that we are happy with the many strides Hofstra is making – from the construction of new buildings to the renovation of academic and athletics facilities. Hofstra has provided Nicholas and his classmates with a lot, so we want to show our thanks.

George and Catherine Melanthiou, Parents '16

You have the power to enhance the value of your Hofstra degree and the prestige of your alma mater.

HOW?

- ▶ Make at least one gift – any size – to Hofstra each year.
- ▶ Attend University events.
- ▶ Encourage every Hofstra graduate you know to do the same.

WHY?

- ▶ Because the more alumni who give, the higher the University climbs in college rankings, such as those of U.S. News & World Report.
- ▶ Because even a small gift makes a huge difference.
- ▶ Because your gift is a demonstration of your commitment to Hofstra.

YOUR GIFT ... YOUR CHOICE

We encourage you to give to The Fund for Hofstra University. Your gift may be designated to any area or program you feel most passionate about.

HOFSTRA ALUMNI HAVE PRIDE – LET'S SHOW IT! Make a gift today at hofstra.edu/giving.

Call With Pride

Mission:

To support and contribute to The Fund for Hofstra University through positive and productive phone communications with students, alumni, parents, faculty, and friends.

Purpose:

To raise annual funds for the University while offering student fundraisers an opportunity to learn and develop new skills in the areas of development, marketing, public relations, business management and communication. Its main purpose is to secure as many participating donors as possible to augment the school's national ranking and profile. All funds that are raised directly support the goals of the University, its schools, student organizations and associations, and faculty, as well as campus beautification efforts.

Match With Pride Program

Who We Need

- Donors, alumni, friends, foundations, businesses and leaders who are looking for innovative ways to increase their giving and to encourage others to give.
- Supporters who understand the need for annual gifts and increased participation rates.
- Supporters who will be inspired by our student fundraiser efforts.
- Supporters who can encourage friends and colleagues to follow their lead.

Impact

- For a minimum donation of $5,000, alumni have the opportunity to match the efforts of our hardworking Call With Pride student fundraisers and the generosity of our University's supporters.
- Match a Call With Pride shift, week, month, or even semester, and increase the generosity and impact of every gift.
- Specific Match With Pride scripts and materials will be created and will explain how the match works and who the matching donor is.
- Visit campus to meet and inspire Call With Pride student fundraisers.

Follow Up

- Any gift made during a Match With Pride call will trigger our system of follow up and correspondence.
- Matching donors will receive a report from us on the status of the match and any other relevant or wanted information.
- Participating donors will be sent a thank-you letter from the matching donor.

Other Areas of Potential Opportunity

Match With Pride is an easy and effective way to encourage increased giving from alumni, organizations, and businesses in support of Hofstra's schools and programs.
