PRIDE PREVIEW

Seth Tierney continues his rebuilding project in 2008 with a veteran lineup that includes eight returning starters from last season.

Hofstra, which had only one returning starter last year from the 2006 quarterfinal team, returns six of its top seven scorers led by junior attackman Tom Dooley (26G, 2A). Senior midfielders and captains Michael (7G, 18A) and Kevin Unterstein (54GB) give the Pride a solid combination of offense, defense and leadership. Juniors Michael Collelucor (15G, 4A) and Anthony Muscarella (12G, 0A), and sophomores Dan Stein (14G, 4A) and Tom Interlicchio (14G, 3A) are also expected to return to starting roles and provide additional scoring punch. Several newcomers, including Canadian National Team selection Jay Card and Long Island native Kevin Ford, are also expected to make contributions.

Sophomore goalie Danny Orlando, who posted a 7.21 goals against average last season, showed All-American abilities and will be the final line in front of a defense that includes captains Jack Vivonetto and junior Adam Swarsen.

The Pride, who enter the season ranked 19th in the 2008 Face-off Yearbook preseason poll, have six home games, including contests against defending national champion Johns Hopkins, and NCAA Tournament semifinalist Delaware. Hofstra will also square off on the road against tournament participants Princeton and North Carolina.
